A More Promising Musical Future: Leading Transformational Change in Music Higher Education Michael Stepniak, 2022-07-19 Today's higher education music faculty and administrators are faced with extraordinary pressure to adapt, innovate and change. But what change is most critical to pursue and how can it be brought about effectively? This concise volume brings together four seasoned thought leaders with distinct voices, each providing a complementary glimpse into how music faculty and administrators can help lead changes that truly matter. Making the case for transformations to better align music training in higher education with our culturally diverse society and the actual marketplace facing graduates, the perspectives collected here provide essential change management leadership strategies for music departments in the 21st century. Covering topics such as diversity and inclusion, institutional transformation and preparing students for contemporary music careers, each chapter includes an outline of specific steps that can be taken individually and collectively towards needed change. Illuminating issues and providing practical suggestions, this book will enable both music faculty and administrators to confidently navigate change together with their communities. How to Do It Now Because It's Not Going Away Leslie Josel, 2020-10-06 With distance learning, teens are having to manage their time and attention now more than ever. Procrastination is especially tough for young adults. Getting started is overwhelming; it's hard to get motivated, not knowing how long things take, messes up planning, and distractions are everywhere. We are all wired to put things off, but we can learn tools and techniques to kick this habit. This book is a user-friendly guide to help teens get their tasks done. Simple, straightforward and with a touch of humor, it's packed with practical solutions and easily digestible tips to stay on top of homework, develop a sense of time, manage digital distractions, create easy-to-follow routines and get unstuck. In her breezy, witty style, internationally recognized academic and parenting coach Leslie Josel opens the door to a student's view of procrastination, dives deep into what that really looks like and offers up her Triple Ts: tips, tools and techniques to teach students how to get stuff done now. Hey Guys, This book is the easiest and fastest way for you to learn how to help yourself. If your parents are constantly on you about school stuff, how you manage your time or things like that, you'll definitely want to use this book. Ryan Wexelblatt, LCSW, ADHD Dude Listen up, parents! This is the book that will get teens nodding their heads and actually using the strategies and tips as they transform their study time. Teens and college students alike will feel totally empowered as they tackle their toughest obstacles: procrastination, distraction, organization and all the rest. With real-life examples and a super-readable format, students will gain the practical help they need to power through their studies and do their best work.
