Who's who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges Henry Pettus Randall, 1977 Catalina Karla Cornejo Villavicencio, 2025-05-13 NATIONAL BESTSELLER LONGLISTED FOR THE NATIONAL BOOK AWARD A year in the life of the unforgettable Catalina Ituralde, a wickedly wry and heartbreakingly vulnerable student at an elite college, forced to navigate an opaque past, an uncertain future, tragedies on two continents, and the tantalizing possibilities of love and freedom. A sparkling fiction debut. The New York Times Book Review Editors' Choice. A fresh and unflinching take on the campus novel. People Ten Best Books of the Year. Diabolically charming and magnetic. Ira Glass FINALIST FOR THE PEN/HEMINGWAY AWARD. A BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR. Time. The Washington Post. NPR. The Boston Globe. When Catalina is admitted to Harvard, it feels like the fulfillment of destiny, a miracle child escapes death in Latin America, moves to Queens to be raised by her undocumented grandparents, and becomes one of the chosen. But nothing is simple for Catalina, least of all her own complicated, contradictory, ruthlessly probing mind. Now a senior, she faces graduation to a world that has no place for the undocumented, her sense of doom intensifies, her curiosities and desires grow. She infiltrates the school's elite subcultures, internships, and literary journals, posh parties, and secret societies, which she observes with the eye of an anthropologist and an interloper's skepticism. She is both fascinated and repulsed. Craving a great romance, Catalina finds herself drawn to a fellow student, an actual budding anthropologist eager to teach her about the Latin American world she was born into but never knew. Even as her life back in Queens begins to unravel, and every day the clock ticks closer to the abyss of life after graduation, Can she save her family? Can she save herself? What does it mean to be saved? Brash and daring, part campus novel, part hagiography, part pop song, Catalina is unlike any coming-of-age novel you've ever read, and Catalina, bright and tragic, circled by a nimbus of chaotic energy, driven by a wild heart, is a character you will never forget. A whimsical array of ghosts and goblins, spooks and skeletons, animals and nursery room characters parade through this unparalleled collection of more than one hundred years of American Halloween costumes and masquerade. Photographer Phyllis Galembo approaches her subjects with the delight and wonder of one who has discovered an entire cast of characters backstage in an abandoned theater. Through her lens, the costumes rise from the dead to once again dance, play and amuse. Ranging from handmade to store-bought, satin to polyester, the masks, wigs and costumes, whether recognizable figures or obscure, pique our childhood memories. In her celebration of Halloween revelry, Galembo never settles for the ordinary; instead, she creates evocative scenes of dressed-to-scare young trick-or-treaters modeling their disguises and of undead spirits haunting their surroundings. The costumes, which span over a century, take on magical qualities through fanciful sets and specialized lighting effects. Accompanying the costumes is a history of this always popular holiday and essays discussing Galembo's inspirations and techniques. Through her art, Galembo allows us to act out our youthful fantasies of transformation to become or at least observe what we most want to be, free of inhibitions of fixed notions of identity. Her images make us laugh and dream and maybe even believe in ghosts. Book jacket. Halloween Costumes Cheap- 50 Possibilities, 2005.
