An isometric illustration of a futuristic city. In the center, a large globe sits on a pedestal. To the left, a tall, stylized building with a spiral design stands. To the right, a series of colorful, stacked blocks form a staircase-like structure. In the foreground, two small figures stand on a circular platform. The background features a winding path, trees, and a large, multi-colored structure that resembles a stylized 'E' or a series of connected platforms.
