A Brilliant Idea Every 60 Seconds Michael Kryton, 2018-10-09 A Brilliant Idea Every 60 Seconds introduces a tested ideation and creative thinking methodology developed over the author's 36 year career as a creative communications professional and ideation expert This methodology and the associated tools are being applied in personal lives and professional careers helping people connect to their individual way of operating creatively This how to book on ideation focuses an individual s creative lens and makes the process of generating ideas highly tangible It is not simply about techniques it is also about understanding a context of personal individual creativity which allows individuals to more fully understand and embrace the Brilliant ideation techniques Most importantly it is about speed generating ideas right now The book is comprised of three components Examining individual creativity understanding the nature of your individual creative process exploring how you think and operate creatively understanding how others think and operate creatively maximizing the way groups teams and think tanks work together creatively and reach their creative potential The ideation toolkit understanding the nine Inherent Values idea triggers and how they work to generate Idea Strings and Actionable Ideas the matrix of these Inherent Values makes the creative process and ideation tangible Case studies examining over 30 case studies ranging from advertising campaigns and live events to problem solving situations and innovative product development The Art & Science of Moviemaking (Parts I & II) Jonathan D. Krane,2012-09-07 Screenwriting Poetics and the Screen Idea I. MacDonald,Ian W. Macdonald,2013-10-30 A new original investigation into how screenwriting works the practices creative poetics and texts that serve the screen idea Using a range of film media and creative theories it includes new case studies on the successful ITV soap Emmerdale Hitchcock s first major screenwriter and David Lean s unfinished film Nostromo Corporate Culture Practices of German Corporations in the Host Country Indonesia Aang Koswara,2022-10-13 This study addresses the corporate cultural practices of German companies in the host country Indonesia from the perspective of Indonesian employees managers and German expatriates The focus is on the intercultural challenges that arise in the practice of daily cooperation between Indonesian and German organizational members Using qualitative methods the study examines how these challenges are viewed and managed by organizational members what cultural differences are evident in them and how these differences can be explained and finally what strategies can be used to overcome the challenges in everyday business This ethnographic study is based on interviews with Indonesian and German organizational members analysis of internal company journals and newsletters and observations collected by the author as a professional stranger at Indonesian sites of German multinational companies The study concludes that four cultural issues are fundamental factors in the corporate culture of German companies in the host country Indonesia first the implementation of a culture of integrity second issues of leadership in a hierarchy driven social environment third the daily use of language and the flow of information in a multilingual professional environment and finally the creation and maintenance of harmonious family like working relationships War and Ideas John Mueller,2013-09-13 This book collects the key essays together with updating notes and commentary of Professor John Mueller on war and the role of ideas and opinions Mueller has maintained that war and peace are in essence merely ideas and that war has waned as the notion that peace is a decidedly good idea has gained currency The first part of the book extends this argument noting that as ideas have spread war is losing out not only in the developed world but now in the developing one and that even civil war is in marked decline It also assesses and critiques theories arguing that this phenomenon is caused by the rising acceptance of democracy and or capitalism The second part argues that the Cold War was at base a clash of ideas that were seen to be threatening not of arms balances domestic systems geography or international structure It also maintains that there has been a considerable tendency to exaggerate security threats currently in particular the one presented by international terrorism and to see them in excessively military terms The third section deals with the role public opinion plays in foreign policy and argues that many earlier conclusions about opinion during the Korean and Vietnam Wars including especially ones concerning the importance of casualties in determining popular support for war apply to more recent military ventures in the Persian Gulf Bosnia Iraq and Afghanistan It also assesses the difficulties leaders and idea entrepreneurs often encounter when they try to manage or manipulate public opinion This book will be of much interest to students of international relations security studies foreign policy and international history
