Migration Development And Transnationalization Critical Interventions:

Migration, Development, and Transnationalization Nina Glick Schiller, Thomas Faist, 2010-11-01 The relationship between migration and development is becoming an important field of study yet the fundamentals analytical tools conceptual framework political stance are not being called into question or dialogue This volume provides a valuable alternative perspective to the current literature as the contributors explore the contradictory discourses about migration and the role these discourses play in perpetuating inequality and a global regime of militarized surveillance The assumptions surrounding the asymmetrical transfers of resources that accompany migration are deeply skewed and continue to reflect the interests of the most powerful states and the institutions that serve their interests Those who seek to address the morass of development failure vitriolic attacks on immigrants or sanguine views about migrant agency are challenged by this volume to put aside their methodological nationalism and pursue alternative pathways out of the quagmire of poverty violence and fear that is enveloping the globe

Indian Migrant Organizations Md Mizanur Rahman, Rakesh Ranjan, 2020-06-12 The Indian diaspora is increasingly engaging with the homeland by forming a range of migrant organizations organizations constituting a growing sector of non State actors who engage with the host country and the country of origin in a sustained and profound way Research on migrant organizations tends to focus only on transnational migrant organizations in host countries Indian Migrant Organizations analyses a set of local and transnational organizations formed by Indian migrants whose activities include mobilizing resources and connections and engaging in numerous development initiatives in India and studies their engagement particularly in the Indian healthcare and education sectors In particular the book discusses how these organizations have evolved what kind of healthcare and educational projects and activities they are carrying out and how such collective efforts are affecting development dynamics in India

The Ethics and Politics of Immigration Alex Sager, 2016-10-03 The Ethics and Politics of Immigration provides an overview of the central topics in the ethics of immigration with contributions from scholars who have shaped the terms of debate and who are moving the discussion forward in exciting directions This book is unique in providing an overview of how the field has developed over the last twenty years in political philosophy and political theory The essays in this book cover issues to do with open borders admissions policies refugee protection and the regulation of labor migration The book also includes coverage of matters concerning integration inclusion and legalization It goes on to explore human trafficking and smuggling and the immigrant detention The book concludes with four topics that promise to move immigration ethics in new directions philosophical objections to states giving preference to skilled laborers the implications of gender and care ethics the incorporation of the philosophy of race and how the cognitive bias of methodological nationalism affects the discussion

Remittances as Social Practices and Agents of Change Silke Meyer, Claudius Ströhle, 2023-08-31 This open access book explores the transformative effects of remittances Remittances are conceptualized as flows of money objects ideas traditions and symbolic capital mapping out a cross border space in which people live work and communicate with multiple belongings By doing so they effect social change both in places of origin and destination However their power to improve individual living conditions and community infrastructure mainly results from global inequality Hence we challenge the remittance mantra and go beyond the migration development nexus by revealing dependencies and frictions in remittance relations Remittances are thus scrutinized in their effects on both social cohesion and social rupture By highlighting the transformative effects of remittance in the context of conflict climate change and the postcolonial we shed light on the future of transnational society Presenting empirical case studies from Ghana Burkina Faso Sri Lanka New Zealand Turkey Lebanon USA Japan and various European countries as well as historical North America and the Habsburg Empire we explore remittance relations from a range of disciplines including anthropology sociology history design architecture governance and peace studies

Extremism, Society, and the State Giacomo Loperfido, 2021-12-10 Extremism does not happen in a vacuum Rather extremism is a relative concept that often emerges in crisis situations taking shape within the tense and contradictory relations that tie marginal spaces state orders and mainstream culture This collected volume brings together leading anthropologists and cultural analysts to offer a concise look at the narratives symbolic and metaphoric fields related to extremism systematizing an approach to extremism and placing these ideologies into historical political and geo systemic contexts

Security and Development John-Andrew McNeish, Jon Harald Sande Lie, 2010-11-01 Since 9 11 ideas of security have focused in part on the development of ungovernable spaces Important debates are now being had over the nature impacts and outcomes of the numerous policy statements made by northern governments NGOs and international institutions that view the merging of security with development as both unproblematic and progressive This volume addresses this new security development nexus and investigates internal institutional logics as well as the operation of policy its dangers resistances and complicity with other local and national social processes Drawing on detailed ethnography the contributors offer new vantage points to understand the workings of multiple intersecting and conflicting power structures which whilst local are tied to non local systems and operate across time This volume is a necessary critique and extension of key themes integral to the security development nexus debate highlighting the importance of a situated and substantive understanding of human security

Who's Cashing In? Atreyee Sen, Johan Lindquist, Marie Kolling, 2020-08-01 Cashless infrastructures are rapidly increasing as credit cards cryptocurrencies online and mobile money remittances demonetization and digitalization process replace coins and currencies around the world Who's Cashing In explores how different modes of cashlessness impact transform and challenge the everyday lives and livelihoods of local communities Drawing from a wide range of ethnographic studies this volume offers a concise look at how social actors and intermediaries respond to this change in the materiality of money throughout multiple regional contexts

Becoming a Migrant Worker in Nepal Hannah Uprety, 2022-09-01 High profile events such as the 2022 FIFA World Cup in Qatar have made one thing abundantly clear Much of today's economic growth would be unthinkable without the low wage employment of migrant workers But which cultural economic and political infrastructures in the source countries make these types of migration possible in the first place Based on multi sensory ethnographic research in Nepal Hannah Uprety retraces the practices of recruitment and instruction that step by step transform Nepali labor into an internationally marketable commodity In doing so she uncovers a migration regime that effectively turns local men and women into migrant workers before they even leave the country Sustainable Development Paul Sillitoe,2014-08-01 With growing evidence of unsustainable use of the world s resources such as hydrocarbon reserves and related environmental pollution as in alarming climate change predictions sustainable development is arguably the prominent issue of the 21st century This volume gives a wide ranging introduction focusing on the arid Gulf region where the challenges of sustainable development are starkly evident The Gulf relies on non renewable oil and gas exports to supply the world s insatiable CO2 emitting energy demands and has built unsustainable conurbations with water supplies dependent on energy hungry desalination plants and deep aquifers pumped beyond natural replenishment rates Sustainable Development has an interdisciplinary focus bringing together university faculty and government personnel from the Gulf Europe and North America including social and natural scientists environmentalists and economists architects and planners to discuss topics such as sustainable natural resource use and urbanization industrial and technological development economy and politics history and geography Democracy's Paradox Bruce Kapferer,Dimitrios Theodossopoulos,2019-04-02 Does populism indicate a radical crisis in Western democratic political systems Is it a revolt by those who feel they have too little voice in the affairs of state or are otherwise marginalized or oppressed Or are populist movements part of the democratic process Bringing together different anthropological experiences of current populist movements this volume makes a timely contribution to these questions Contrary to more conventional interpretations of populism as crisis the authors instead recognize populism as integral to Western democratic systems In doing so the volume provides an important critique that exposes the exclusionary essentialisms spread by populist rhetoric while also directing attention to local views of political accountability and historical consciousness that are key to understanding this paradox of democracy The Global Life of Austerity Theodoros Rakopoulos,2018-06-18 Austerity and structural adjustment programs are just the latest forms of neoliberal policy to have a profoundly damaging impact on the targeted populations Yet as the contributors to this collection argue the recent austerity related European crisis is not a breach of erstwhile development schemes but a continuation of economic policies Using historical analysis and ethnographically grounded research this volume shows the similarities of the European conundrum with realities outside Europe seeing austerity in a non Eurocentric fashion In doing so it offers novel insights as to how economic crises are experienced at a global level Crypto Crowds Matan Shapiro,2024-03-15 Ownership of cryptocurrencies features contrasting forms of mobilization On one hand it denotes association with a global crowd of unrelated individual investors which expands as it attracts more members On the other hand it includes participation in grassroots communities which are generally more insular Crypto Crowds demonstrates how this tension generates political economic and moral realities in different cultural and geographical contexts Pioneering in its approach to cryptocurrency trading this volume will inspire scholars interested in the sociality of decentralized business models boom and bust cycles on the blockchain libertarian utopias and other postmodern crowding phenomena War, Technology, Anthropology Koen Stroeken, 2011-12-01 Technologies of the allied warfare in Iraq and Afghanistan such as remote controlled drones and night vision goggles allow the user to virtualize human targets This coincides with increased civilian casualties and a perpetuation of the very insecurity these technologies are meant to combat This concise volume of research and reflections from different regions across Asia the Middle East Latin America and Africa observes how anthropology operates as a technology of war It tackles recent theories of humans in society colluding with imperialist claims including anthropologists who have become involved professionally in warfare through their knowledge of cultures renamed as human terrain systems The chapters link varied yet crucial domains of inquiry from battlefields technologies military driven scientific policy and economic warfare to martyrdom cosmology shifts media coverage of distant wars and the virtualizing techniques and war porn soundtracks of the gaming industry The Event of Charlie Hebdo Alessandro

Zagato, 2015-09-01 The January 2015 shooting at the headquarters of satirical magazine Charlie Hebdo in Paris and the subsequent attacks that took place in the le de France region were staggeringly violent events They sparked an enormous discussion among citizens and intellectuals from around Europe and beyond By analyzing the effects the attacks have had in various spheres of social life including the political ideology collective imaginaries the media and education this collection of essays aims to serve as a contribution as well as a critical response to that discussion The volume observes that the events being attributed to Charlie Hebdo go beyond sensationalist reports of the mainstream media transcend the spatial confines of nation states and lend themselves to an ever expanding number of mutating discursive formations Moral Anthropology Bruce Kapferer, Marina Gold, 2018-04-13 A development in anthropological theory characterized as the moral turn is gaining popularity and should be carefully considered In examining the context arguments and discourse that surrounds this trend this volume reconceptualizes the discipline of anthropology in a radical way Contributions from anthropologists from around the world from different theoretical traditions and with expertise in a multiplicity of ethnographic areas makes this collection a provocative contribution to larger discussions not only in anthropology but the social sciences more broadly

Transnational Labour Migration, Remittances and the Changing Family in Asia L. Hoang, B. Yeoh, 2015-05-13 The contributors investigate the inter relationships between migrant remittances and the family in Asia They argue that in the context of Asian transnational labour migration where remittances tend to become a primary currency of care the making or breaking of the family unit is mainly contingent on how individuals handle remittance processes Beyond Bollywood Jigna Desai, 2004-08-02 Beyond Bollywood is the first comprehensive look at the emergence development and significance of contemporary South Asian diasporic cinema From a feminist and queer perspective Jigna Desai explores the hybrid cinema of the Brown Atlantic through a close look at films in English from and about South Asian diasporas in the United States Canada and Britain including such popular films as My Beautiful Laundrette Fire Monsoon Wedding and Bend it Like Beckham

Urban Development in India Pablo Shiladitya Bose, 2015-03-05 Indian diaspora has had a complex and multifaceted role in catalyzing justifying and promoting a transformed urban landscape in India Focussing on Kolkata Calcutta this book analyses the changing landscapes over the past two decades of one of the world's most fascinating and iconic cities Previously better known due to its post Independence decline into overcrowded poverty pollution and despair in recent years it has experience a revitalization that echoes India's renaissance as a whole in the new millennium This book weaves together narratives of migration and diasporas postmodern developmentalism and neoliberal urbanism and identity and belonging in the Global South It examines the rise of middle class environmental initiatives and Kolkata's attempts to reclaim its earlier global status It suggests that a form of global gentrification is taking place through which people and place are being fundamentally restructured Based on a decade's worth of field research and investigation in multiple sites metropolitan centers connected by long histories of empire migration economy and culture it employs a multi methods approach and uses ethnographic semi structured interviews as well as archival research for much of the empirical data collected Addressing urban change and policies as well as spatial and discursive transformations that are occurring in India it will be of interest to researchers in the field of urban geography urban and regional planning environmental studies diaspora studies and South Asian studies

Conscripts of Migration Christopher Ian Foster, 2019-08-23 In Conscripts of Migration Neoliberal Globalization Nationalism and the Literature of New African Diasporas author Christopher Ian Foster analyzes increasingly urgent questions regarding crises of global immigration by redefining migration in terms of conscription and by studying contemporary literature Reporting on immigration whether liberal or conservative popular or scholarly leaves out the history in which the Global North helped create outward migration in the Global South From histories of racial capitalism the trans Atlantic slave trade and imperialism to contemporary neoliberal globalization and the resurgence of xenophobic nationalism countries in the Global North continue to devastate and destabilize the Global South Britain France Italy and the United States in different ways police the effects of their own global policies at their borders Foster provides a substantial study of a new body of contemporary African diasporic literature called migritude literature Migritude indicates the work and ideas of a disparate yet distinct group of younger African authors born after independence in the 1960s Most often migritude authors have lived both in and outside Africa and narrate the experiences of migration under the pressures of globalization They also emphasize that immigration itself and stereotypes of the immigrant are entangled with the history of colonialism Authors like Fatou Diome Shailja Patel Abdourahman Waberi Cristina Ali Farah and others confront critical issues of migrancy diaspora departure return racism identity gender sexuality and postcoloniality

Migration, Transnationalism and Development in South-East Europe and the Black Sea Region Russell King, Maja Povrzanović Frykman, Julie Vullnetari, 2018-04-19 The Southeast Europe and Black Sea region presents fertile terrain for examining recent international migration trends. The contributions to this book cover a range of examples from Ukraine and Moldova in the north to Greece and Albania in the south. By intersecting the three key concepts of migration, transnationalism and development, they offer new insights based on original empirical research. A wide range of types of migration can be observed in this region: large scale emigration in many countries; recent mass immigration in the case of Greece; return migration; internal migration; internal and external forced migration; irregular migration; brain drain etc. These migratory phenomena occur within the context of EU migration policies and EU accession for some countries. Yet within this shifting migration landscape of migrant stocks and flows, the fundamental economic geography of different wealth levels and work opportunities is what drives most migration now as in the past. This book was previously published as a special issue of Southeast European and Black Sea Studies.
