A Comparison of the Ecology and Behavior of Monkeys and Apes , Peter Pan Reimagined. A Comparison of Brom's The Child Thief and J. M. Barrie's Peter Pan Franziska Schweitzer,2016-06 What does Avalon have to do with Neverland Why are the children the only humans who can use Avalon s magic What are the differences between J M Barrie s Peter Pan and Brom s Child Thief Brom wrote a haunting reimagination of a book that is still one of the most important for children Yet The Child Thief is not a book designed for children There is a great difference between the flying boy in Barrie s original and Brom s Peter This poses the question which traits of the original Peter Pan did Brom use as they were and which ones did he give a twist Every change that Brom made has implications that go beyond a simple adaption to our modern taste Since The Child Thief also does not follow Barrie s Peter Pan concerning the storyline or the narrative style the formerly posed question encompasses therefore the whole The Child Thief This treatise aims to answer these questions and to give an outlook on possible further research

Children and Their Changing Media Environment Sonia Livingstone,Moira Bovill,2013-06-07 Focusing on the meanings uses and impacts of new media in childhood family life peer culture and the relation between home and school this volume sets out to address many of the questions fears and hopes regarding the changing place of media in the lives of today s children and young people The scholars contributing to this work argue that such questions intellectual empirical and policy related can be productively addressed through cross national research Hence this volume brings together researchers from 12 countries Belgium Denmark Finland France Germany the United Kingdom Israel Italy the Netherlands Spain Sweden and Switzerland to present original and comprehensive findings regarding the diffusion and significance of new media and information technologies among children Inspired by parallels and difference between the arrival of television in the family home during the 1950s and the present day arrival of new media the research is based on in depth interviews and a detailed comparative survey of 6 to 16 year olds across Europe and in Israel The result is a comprehensive detailed and fascinating account of how these technologies are rapidly becoming central to the daily lives of young people As a resource for researchers and students in media and communication studies leisure and cultural studies social psychology and related areas this volume provides crucial insights into the role of media in the lives of children The findings included herein will also be of interest to policymakers in broadcasting technology and education throughout the world
