Navigating Souths Michele Grigsby Coffey, Jodi Skipper, 2017-08-01 The work of considering imagining and theorizing the U S South in regional national and global contexts is an intellectual project that has been going on for some time Scholars in history literature and other disciplines have developed an advanced understanding of the historical social and cultural forces that have helped to shape the U S South However most of the debates on these subjects have taken place within specific academic disciplines with few attempts to cross engage Navigating Souths broadens these exchanges by facilitating transdisciplinary conversations about southern studies scholarship The fourteen original essays in Navigating Souths articulate questions about the significances of the South as a theoretical and literal home base for social science and humanities researchers They also examine challenges faced by researchers who identify as southern studies scholars as well as by those who live and work in the regional South and show how researchers have responded to these challenges In doing so this book project seeks to reframe the field of southern studies as it is currently being practiced by social science and humanities scholars and thus reshape historical and cultural conceptualizations of the region

Anna Faktorovich, 2016-05-11 This first issue of Cinematic Codes Review includes three film studies essays Richmond B Adams writes about an alternative perspective on Canon Doyle s Sherlock Holmes Trevor Seigler s essay focuses on Paris as Antoine Doinel saw it Finally Michael T Smith discusses subversive sexuality in Stanley Kubrick s Dr Strangelove The Editor Anna Faktorovich contributes a series of reviews of pop art documentary series and other films she has been watching on Netflix with screenshots to illustrate her points There is also a review of Livide a vampire horror film by Jane M Kubiesa The last section includes drawings from a widely displayed artist Allen Forrest The Cinematic Codes Review will feature works in all visual genres especially those with moving pictures be they music videos feature films documentaries photography or just about any other mode or genre of art that does not fall into the realm of literature which will be the primary object of Anaphora s Pennsylvania Literary Journal The other term in the name is codes and the intention here is to go beyond the simple summary or theme of the projects criticized in this journal s pages to the codes and meanings that are hidden beyond the superficial The third component of the journal is a dedication to reviewing and criticizing the arts as opposed to applauding and viewing them A great review should help artists to make better art by pointing out flaws There is no such thing as perfect art as all art is still in its infancy and the last couple of centuries have seen great leaps in its evolution There is a long road ahead for art and it s the critics job to take it in the right direction Artists are not children that need to be congratulated on their mistakes They should see profits in honest negativity and the downfall of creativity in false flattery
