matching of the correct timing the mood to walk along The correct timing means the calmness of the morning time or any time period when the pathway is free from the traffic of vehicles which usually create sound as well as air pollutions which in turn might spoil the mood to walk along during that required period of time World s best exercise is walking So can there be any walking exercise free from the limitations mentioned above which is best in the world By the grace of God after putting three years of research endeavours I am able to find innovate an affirmative answer Yes SLTTBWE This iBook having embedded video for ease of learning costs only 1% of a good quality automatic treadmill and services the same purpose as that treadmill will for walking in a room as per the mood which should usually be getting set everyday after the meal in the night Some important beneficial features of SLTTBWE 1 It can be done in a room on a mat barefoot free from the need of long pathway with good weather condition 2 Likewise it can be done at a delightful corner of a park on the green grass again barefoot under the diagonal rays of the sun most beneficial for a diabetic or old age person 3 Easy to create and keep a habit of daily walking as per convenience for 30 to 45 minutes every day in the morning as well as in the night after meal as no need to go out for the same 4 Not an unbalanced exercise SLTTBWE is the same way balanced as the simple walking is The rightward and leftward moves of legs hands are inter balancing as in case of a simple walking rather more better regulated moves happen on its own in SLTTBWE
