The Business of Building and Managing a Healthcare Practice Neil Baum, Marc J. Kahn, Jeffery Daigrepoint, 2023-08-31 Building on the foundation of the previous edition this book takes readers to the next level of management of medical practices for the 21st century The road to becoming a physician is not an easy one to travel nor does it become easier once a doctor completes his her training After a long and arduous training process doctors embark on their professional journey and there are major crossroads that are fraught with challenges unknowns and risk The transition to professional practice is daunting and many physicians leave their training unprepared for the business of medicine Even at the peak of their careers sustaining a successful and profitable practice is not easy Opening chapters revisit the basic business concepts that every physician needs to know emphasizing the benefits that accrue to a physician who understands the basics of business from accounting and contracts to managing people and personal finances The next set of chapters offers a roadmap for doctors who are beginning a medical practice and will include new methods and procedures that have become available since the original edition defining the various options for doctors employment such as solo practice group practice and academic medicine The final chapters emphasize strategies on how to build and grow a successful practice including the use of technology and telemedicine cybersecurity marketing and much more Unfortunately not every doctor has the background training and skills to manage a medical practice The Business of Building and Managing a Healthcare Practice simplifies the process of business management and provides the practicing physician with knowledge to be able to enjoy the business component of his her medical practice

The Married Women's Property Act, 1870 John Richard Griffith, 1873 Deciphering IP Law and Its Conflict and Complementarity with Competition Law Kung-Chung Liu, 2025-02-28 This book introduces a general theory of intellectual property IP law highlighting its importance and relevance in addressing complex IP issues in the digital economy which often intersect with competition law The book argues for the need for a unified theory of IP to elevate it as a discipline in its own right while recognizing the diversity and nuance of IP laws It explores how such a theory can address the challenges posed by the knowledge economy the platform economy the data driven economy and generative AI The book views IP as a market regulatory mechanism designed to remedy market failures in public goods by providing sufficient protection to incentivize human creation and its operation and sharing across societies It also emphasizes the need for competition law when IP oversteps its legitimate boundaries and becomes the source of other market failures The study critically examines the TRIPS Agreement and many established stereotypes of IP theories and regimes It offers a global perspective with a special focus on Asian considerations The title will be essential reading for scholars students practitioners and policymakers interested in regulatory reform and the evolving landscape of intellectual property law and its interaction with competition law in the digital age

The New Landscape of Mobile Learning Charles Miller, Aaron Doering, 2014-02-24 The New Landscape of Mobile Learning is the first book to provide a research based overview of the largely untapped array of potential tools that m Learning offers educators and students in face to face hybrid and distance education This cutting edge guide provides An essential explanation of the emergence and role of Apps in education Design guidelines for educational Apps Case studies and student narratives from across the US describing successful App integration into both K 12 and Higher Education Robust research based evaluation criteria for educational Apps Although many believe that Apps have the potential to create opportunities for transformative mobile education a disparity currently exists between the individuals responsible for creating Apps i e developers who often have little to no instructional experience and the ultimate consumers in the classroom i e K 20 educators and students The New Landscape of Mobile Learning bridges this gap by illuminating critical design integration and evaluation narratives from leaders in the instructional design distance education and mobile learning fields

Bibliography, New Series, 1903 The Impact of USA Patriot Act on American Society Kam C. Wong, 2007 Much has been written about the USA Patriot Act and the controversy that surrounds this far reaching legislation has also generated a great deal of confusion and uncertainty about its impact and importance in the war on terrorism As Professor Kam C Wong notes in this important contribution to the literature There is little scholarly research on the legislation implementation and impact of the Act Undoubtedly few Americans are actually aware of most of the details in the Act or its implications in a free society The events of September 11 2001 in attacks on the World Trade Centre and the Pentagon prompted a unique response by Congress in passing a series of wide reaching laws expanding the powers of law enforcement and the judiciary Of particular concern to many are the requirements of public and private organisations to provide information in connection with homeland security that is considered intrusive and in violation of privacy rights Ultimately it will be many years before the actual impact of the Patriot Act can be assessed In this new and important book Professor Wong provides a critical analysis of the legislation and its capacity for abuse The Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory ,1999 The New Irish Jurist and Local Government Review ,1901 The Royal Commission on the Losses and Services of American Loyalists, 1783 to 1785 Daniel Parker Coke,Roxburghe Club,1915 American Florist ,1916 The Law Students' Journal John Indermaur,Charles Thwaites,1897 The Economist ,1909 New York University Journal of International Law & Politics New York University.
