Barnett, Clark J.

Elliston, Trevor B. Williams, 2025-08-29 Theological Discourses on Social Media will examine ten different social media platforms across three overarching parts. The task throughout is first to delineate the configuration and intent of a given form of social media and second to probe its implications for theology. On the whole, the volume will focus on the Judeo-Christian tradition, though dialogue with and insight from other religious traditions will also be featured. The upshot will be a unique theological engagement with the defining issue of our era, a work that will be as relevant as it will be engrossing. Featuring contributions from leading scholars, it will be a must read for all students of theology, religion and media and cultural studies.

Intersectional Intimacy Jin Lee, 2025-11-24 Intersectional Intimacy: Identity Work of Racialized Women in Online Dating Cultures is the first book to examine both shared and divergent stories from those who identify as women with race-related experiences navigating online dating cultures and to explore how their experience of intimate relationships is mediated by the apps. While many women turn to dating apps in search of intimacies, their navigations are continuously mediated and challenged by hierarchies of race, gender, class and sexuality embedded in online dating cultures. This book traces the ongoing and layered processes through which racialized women develop their stories of online intimacies by making use of their identities and further cultivate their subjectivities. It also addresses the global dimensions of these practices, illustrating how global and local power structures intersect with personal experience afforded by the popularity of dating apps and how these readings change with their mobility. Intersectional Intimacy will be an essential text for students of gender studies, sociology and politics as well as those interested in race, media studies, digital culture and communications.
