America Inc.? Linda Weiss, 2014-04-01 For more than half a century the United States has led the world in developing major technologies that drive the modern economy and underpin its prosperity In America Inc Linda Weiss attributes the U S capacity for transformative innovation to the strength of its national security state a complex of agencies programs and hybrid arrangements that has developed around the institution of permanent defense preparedness and the pursuit of technological supremacy She examines how that complex emerged and how it has evolved in response to changing geopolitical threats and domestic political constraints from the Cold War period to the post 9 11 era Weiss focuses on state funded venture capital funds new forms of technology procurement by defense and security related agencies and innovation in robotics nanotechnology and renewable energy since the 1980s Weiss argues that the national security state has been the crucible for breakthrough innovations a catalyst for entrepreneurship and the formation of new firms and a collaborative network coordinator for private sector initiatives Her book appraises persistent myths about the military commercial relationship at the core of the National Security State Weiss also discusses the implications for understanding U S capitalism the American state and the future of American primacy as financialized corporations curtail investment in manufacturing and innovation

I Remember... Philip Foo, 2014-06-19 Unless you write yourself you cant know how wonderful it is I always used to bemoan the fact that I couldnt draw but now Im overjoyed that at least I can write And if I dont have the talent to write books or newspaper articles I can always write for myself ANN FRANK A Diary of a Young Girl And that was what I did sitting at the kitchen table pencil in hand Oxford Dictionary of Current English and a pencil sharpener beside me It was daunting at the beginning putting pencil to paper and I could not remember the number of times I stared blankly at the refrigerator facing me in the kitchen scouring my mind to recollect memories of past events Somehow the encouraging words from the books I had read to prepare me for this journey seemed to lubricate the long stagnant gears of my mind and I just do it the way I wanted it to be done
