Export Manager Luca Gatto, Marco Sanfilippo, 2024-05-23 T00:00:00+02:00 In the complexity of the current economic context exports represent the only path that allows Italian SMEs to grow and thrive in the medium to long term. However the international markets in which they operate are increasingly complex and competitive and unlike local markets they are complicated by the presence of barriers and peculiarities related to sales and after sales management. In this scenario the Export Manager is a crucial figure in enabling companies to initiate develop and manage the export of goods and services and more generally to activate the internationalization process. In this perspective the book represents a true guidebook for a profession on the rise. From company assessment to market analysis from defining the entry strategy into target countries to designing the business model from risk assessment to business plan drafting and implementation to KPI monitoring for each activity the authors pragmatically illustrate both the necessary technical skills and the softer managerial capabilities.

supported by cases and examples without neglecting the implications of the digitization process that now affects every phase of this multifaceted profession

Globalization and Regionalization David B. Audretsch, Charles F. Bonser, 2002 In this volume David B Audretsch and Charles F Bonser present a view of Globalization and Regionalization that holds that the interaction between a more open trading system and the new telecommunications and computer technology has substantially increased productivity and facilitated the fragmentation of the production process The fragmentation of the production process has resulted in a new international organization of production It has accelerated the globalization of national economies and has allowed firms to take advantage of low wages wherever they are to be found and where important to locate production facilities close to their customers This expansion in international trade and production mobility has resulted in new sources of gain that contribute to the new economy In the second chapter of this volume Alfred C Aman Jr examines whether globalization dictates new approaches to governance The process by which public policy in England has incorporated regional government is the focus of Kenneth Spencer in Chapter 3 In the fourth chapter Lawrence S Davidson provides an analysis of the impact of globalization on manufacturing in the US Midwest In Chapter 5 John W Ryan shows how there is a dual role of universities in the global economy On the one hand universities serve as institutions that foster globalization and reduce the isolation of regions On the other hand universities themselves are shaped and influenced by globalization David B Audretsch and A Roy Thurik in Chapter 6 show how globalization has led to the emergence of the strategic management of regions In Chapter 7 Jean Pierre van Aubel and Frans van Nispen examine the links between federalization and globalization in the European context The impact of globalization on regulatory institutions is the focus of Montserrat Cuchillo in Chapter 8 Finally in Chapter 9 David Eaton examines the relationship between global trade sovereignty and sub national autonomy Taken together these chapters provide a compelling view that public policy must be considered in a new light in the global economy Not only does policy have to consider global implications but also the importance of local characteristics and regional strengths
