person may be making an inaccurate assessment of his or her accomplishments Driver argues that we should abandon the highly intellectualist view of virtue and instead adopt a consequentialist perspective which holds that virtue is simply a character trait which systematically produces good consequences Public Opinion ,1887 The Life of Wisdom in Rousseau's "Reveries of the Solitary Walker" Thomas L. Pangle,2023-04-15 The Life of Wisdom in Rousseau s Reveries of the Solitary Walker is the first complete exegesis and interpretation of Rousseau s final and culminating work showing its full philosophic and moral teaching The Reveries has been celebrated as a work of literature that is an acknowledged acme of French prose writing Thomas L Pangle argues that this aesthetic appreciation necessitates an in depth interpretation of the writing s complex and multileveled intended teaching about the normatively best way of life and how essential this is for a work that was initially bewildering Rousseau stands out among modern political philosophers in that he restored to political philosophy what Socrates and his students from Plato and Xenophon through Aristotle and the Stoics and Cicero had made central and that the previous modern Enlightenment philosophers had eclipsed the study of the life and soul of the exemplary independent sage as possessor of human wisdom Rousseau made this again the supreme theme and source of norms for political philosophy and for humanity s moral as well as civic existence In his analysis of The Reveries Pangle uncovers Rousseau s most profound exploration and articulation of his own life personality soul and thought as the man of nature enlightened by reason He describes in Rousseau s final work the fullest embodiment of the experiential wisdom from which flows and to which points Rousseau s political and moral philosophy his theology and his musical and literary art The New quarterly review, and digest of current literature ,1852 The Churchman ,1900 Persian Literature, Ancient and Modern Elizabeth A.
