Documentary Comics Nina Mickwitz, 2016-04-29 Can comics be documentary and can documentary take the form of and thus be comics Examining comics as documentary this book challenges the persistent assumption that ties documentary to recording technologies and instead engages an understanding of the category in terms of narrative performativity and witnessing Through a cluster of early twenty first century comics Nina Mickwitz argues that these comics share a documentary ambition to visually narrate and represent aspects and events of the real world Visual Public Relations Simon Collister, Sarah Roberts-Bowman, 2018-03-28 This book brings together a broad and diverse range of new and radical approaches to public relations focussing on the increasingly vital role that visual sensory and physical elements factors play in shaping communication Engaging with recent developments in critical and cultural theories it outlines how non textual and non representational forces play a central role in the efficacy and reception of public relations Challenging the dominant accounts of public relations which center on the purely representational uses of text and imagery the book critiques the suitability of accepted definitions of the field and highlights future directions for conceptualizing strategic communication within a multi sensory environment Drawing on the work of global researchers in public relations visual culture and communication design and cultural theory it brings a welcome inter disciplinary approach which pushes the boundaries of public relations scholarship in a global cultural context This exciting analysis will be of great interest to public relations scholars advanced students of strategic communication as well as communication researchers from cultural media and critical studies exploring PR as a socio cultural phenomenon Graphic Refuge Dominic Davies, Candida Rifkind, 2025-06-10 Graphic Refuge is the first in depth study of comics about refugees asylum seekers migrants and detainees by artists from the Global North and South Co written by two leading scholars of nonfiction comics the book explores graphic narratives about a range of refugee experiences from war displacement and perilous sea crossings to detention camps resettlement schemes and second generation diasporas Through close readings of work by diverse artists including Joe Sacco Sarah Glidden Don Brown Olivier Kugler Jasper Rietman Hamid Sulaiman Leila Abdelrazzaq Thi Bui and Matt Huynh Graphic Refuge shows how comics challenge dominant representations of the displaced to bring a radical politics of refugee agency and refusal into view Beyond simply affirming the humanity of the refugee these comics demand that we apprehend the historical construction of categories such as citizen and refugee through systems of empire settler colonialism and racial capitalism The comics medium allows readers not only to visualize the lives of refugees but also refocuses the lens on citizen non refugees we who can sleep under warm cover at night as Vinh Nguyen writes in his foreword and interrogates their perceptions aspirations and beliefs Documenting Trauma in Comics Dominic Davies, Candida Rifkind, 2020-05-21 Why are so many contemporary comics and graphic narratives written as memoirs or documentaries of traumatic events Is there a specific relationship between the comics form and the documentation and reportage of trauma How do the interpretive demands made on comics readers shape their relationships with traumatic events And how does comics documentation of traumatic pasts operate across national borders and in different cultural political and politicised contexts The sixteen chapters and three comics included in Documenting Trauma in Comics set out to answer exactly these questions Drawing on a range of historically and geographically expansive examples the contributors bring their different perspectives to bear on the tangled and often fraught intersections between trauma studies comics studies and theories of documentary practices and processes The result is a collection that shows how comics is not simply related to trauma but a generative force that has become central to its remembrance documentation and study Consequential Art Samuel Amago,Matthew J.
