Rediscovering U.S. Newsfilm Mark Garrett Cooper, Sara Beth Levavy, Ross Melnick, Mark Williams, 2018-06-14 The twentieth century generated tens of thousands of hours of American newsfilm but not the scholarly apparatus necessary to analyze and contextualize them Assembling new approaches to the study of U S newsfilm in cinema and television this book makes a long overdue critical intervention in the field of film and media studies by addressing the format's inherent intermediality its mediation of events for local national and transnational communities its distinctive archival legacies and consequently its integral place in film and television studies more broadly This collection brings fresh contemporary methodologies and analysis to bear on a vast amount of material that has languished in relative obscurity for far too long

Movie Minorities Hye Seung Chung, David Scott Diffrient, 2021-08-13 Rights advocacy has become a prominent facet of South Korea's increasingly transnational motion picture output and today films about political prisoners, undocumented workers and people with disabilities attract mainstream attention. Movie Minorities offers the first English language study of Korean cinema's role in helping to galvanize activist social movements across these and other identity-based categories.

A Philosophical History of Documentary, 1960-1990 Dan Geva, 2025-08-03

A Philosophical History of Documentary 1960-1990 is the second book in a three-volume set. It offers a systematic hermeneutical reading of thirty definitions of Documentary from 1960 to 1990 by then a familiar already used and abused dialectical object of thought and practice. The book progresses chronologically through three decades of ongoing efforts by documentarians, theorists, historians and philosophers to define Documentary, examining the philosophical foundations, ethical implications and evolving documentarological sensibilities of these definitions. It also reassesses the intense ontological debates about Documentary, highlighting the discourse's expanding definitional landscape. Building on the first volume which examined thirty definitions from 1895 to 1959, this work weaves an intricate hermeneutical network of interconnections among all sixty definitions. It further anticipates the third volume which will analyze forty additional definitions of Documentary from 1991 to the present, offering a comprehensive philosophical history of the evolution of Documentary as both concept and practice.

Resistance, Dissidence, Revolution Viola Shafik, 2023-03-31

Situated within an emerging academic interest in documentary film in the Middle East and North Africa, this book studies the development of diverse documentary forms in relation to revolutionary and emancipatory movements that took place across the twentieth century in the so-called Arab World. Inspired by Deleuze and Guattari's image of a rhizome, the author takes a de-territorialized approach to revolutionary filmmaking, embracing the diversity and fluidity of revolutionary works in the Arab World. As well as outlining the documentary film histories of the main film-producing nations of the region—Syria, Lebanon, Palestine, Egypt, Tunisia, Algeria and Morocco—the book analyzes the formal and esthetic features of individual works in relation to specific socio-political historical developments. Topics addressed include de-colonization, the wars of liberation, the Tricontinental movement, the Palestinian question, the Rif Uprising, the Lebanese and Black Years civil war in Lebanon, the recent Arab revolutions, state authoritarianism and totalitarianism, gender, collectivism and political subjectivity. Ultimately, the book contributes to a general theory of revolutionary documentary film forms by studying the works of consecutive periods from different ideological contexts. The book is much-needed reading for students and academics interested in film and media studies and the history, culture and politics of the Middle East and North Africa (MENA) region.

Double Exposure Kathryn Millard, 2022-03-18

Double Exposure examines the role of cinema in shaping social psychology's landmark post-war experiments. The most influential experiments left a trail of visual evidence central to capturing the public imagination. Examining the dramaturgy, staging and filming of these experiments, Double Exposure recovers a new set of narratives.

Multiculturalism, Multilingualism and the Self: Literature and Culture Studies

Jacek Mydla, Małgorzata Poks, Leszek Drong, 2017-07-31 This edited collection explores the conjunction of multiculturalism and the self in literature and culture studies and brings together essays by prominent researchers interested in literature and culture whose critical perspectives inform discussions of specific examples of multicultural contexts in which individuals and communities strive to maintain their identities The book is divided into two major parts the first of which comprises literary representations of multiculturalism and discussions of its impasses and impacts in fictional circumstances In turn the second part primarily focuses on culture at large and real life consequences Taken together the two complementary parts offer an illuminating and well rounded overview of representations of multiculturalism in literature and contemporary culture from a variety of critical perspectives

Utopias in Nonfiction Film

Simon Spiegel, 2022-01-11 Comprehensive and thorough Utopias in Nonfiction Film takes a new direction in its surprise application to documentary that has the potential to shake up the field Jane Gaines Columbia University USA Spiegel has introduced a new sub genre to utopian studies the documentary film The book covers an impressive range of films making the book one of the few truly international and comparative works in utopian studies Lyman Tower Sargent University of Missouri St Louis USA Simon Spiegel s magisterial overview of utopian documentaries and nonfiction films is a treasure trove of information and unearths many forgotten and half forgotten films providing perceptive discussions of sidelined movies that deserve his and our critical scrutiny Eckart Voigts University of Braunschweig Institute of Technology Germany This book is the first major study on utopias in nonfiction film Since the publication of Thomas More s Utopia more than 500 years ago countless books have been written which describe a better world But in film positive utopias seem to be nonexistent So far research has focused almost exclusively on dystopias since positive outlooks seem to run contrary to the media s requirement Utopias in Nonfiction Film takes a new approach starting from the insight that literary utopias are first and foremost meant as a reaction to the ills of the present and not as entertaining stories it looks at documentary and propaganda films an area which so far has been completely ignored by research Combining insights from documentary research and utopian studies a vast and very diverse corpus of films is analysed Among them are Zionist propaganda films cinematic city utopias socialist films of the future as well as web videos produced by the Islamist terrorist group ISIS

Self-Made

Tara Isabella Burton, 2023-06-27 An exploration into the curation of the self in Western civilization from Da Vinci to Kim Kardashian In a technologically saturated era where nearly everything can be effortlessly and digitally reproduced we re all hungry to carve out our own unique personalities our own bespoke personae to stand out and be seen As the forces of social media and capitalism collide and individualism becomes more important than ever across a wide array of industries branding ourselves or actively defining our selves for others has become the norm Yet this phenomenon is not new In Self Made Tara Isabella Burton shows us how we arrived at this moment of fervent personal branding As attitudes towards religion politics and society evolved our sense of self did as well moving
