Authorship attribution in Turkish Texts Hülya Kocagül Yüzer,2022-12-31 The latest developments in the field of computer technology have created new ways to share information without time and space limits Computer technologies have not only made life easier and more accessible for users but they have also opened up a new arena for illegal activities These illegal actions have found an opportunity to spread via e mails websites Internet chat rooms forum pages and social networking websites like Facebook Twitter Instagram Online contributors do not need to provide information such as their real names the city where they live age or gender in order to share their opinions and such feelings of anonymity encourage criminal activities Thus disputed authorship cases have become one of the main challenges of the technological era This research is a corpus based simulated authorship casework application in Turkish Texts for the corpora were collected from a collaborative online encyclopaedia Eksi Sozluk Sour Times and Twitter The corpus consists of 900 texts from 52 authors in total However 105 texts belong to seven authors from Twitter The two methodological approaches that were applied are qualitative and statistical methods according to Grant s 2013 approach Ten different tests were applied depending on the various parameters that are forensically possible in real world cases Accordingly the role of feature type size including the candidate author size text size and a limited number of texts per author and finally cross genre application were tested The analyses revealed that such a combined approach has promising results in some tests in that they attributed authorship in Turkish The findings of the research indicated that there is the potential to attribute unknown authors in Turkish and it appears that the results have significant conclusions for the broader application of forensic authorship attribution techniques in Turkish texts Keywords Authorship Attribution Turkish Forensic Linguistics Authorship Analysis

Legal-Lay Discourse and Procedural Justice in Family and County Courts Tatiana Grieshofer,2024-04-18 Focusing on adversarial legal settings this Element explores discursive practices in court proceedings which often involve unrepresented parties private family proceedings and small claims cases Such proceedings present the main caseload of county and family courts but pose immense challenges when it comes to legal lay communication Drawing on court observations alongside textual and interview data the Element pursues three aims 1 developing the methodological and theoretical framework for exploring discursive practices in legal settings 2 establishing the link between legal lay discourse and procedural justice 3 presenting and contextualising linguistic phenomena as an inherent part of court research and practice The Element illustrates how linguistic input can contribute to procedural changes and court reforms across different adversarial and non adversarial legal settings The exploration of discursive practices embedded in court processes and procedures consolidates and advances the existing court research conducted within the fields of socio legal studies and forensic and legal linguistics This title is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core
