Handbook of Equality of Opportunity ,2024-07-12 This Handbook provides an authoritative exposition of equality of opportunity It presents the different concepts most commonly associated with equality of opportunity and discusses the many problems dominating the controversies on equality of opportunity at the theoretical policy or practical level The chapters give a concise exposition of the different conceptions and basic concepts of equal opportunities They clarify variables that are part of the algorithm of equal opportunities e g opportunity equality non discrimination fairness responsibility chance and choice excellence qualifications effort talent merit desert inequality and risk The idea of equality of opportunity has traditionally been associated with a set of largely unquestioned ideals and over the last 50 years it has been at the very centre of the major progressive social changes and firmly entrenched in political rhetoric Yet the idea of equality of opportunity is far from unquestionable or unproblematic as the only solid assumption different conceptions have in common is their rejection of fixed social relations but not hierarchy itself Disagreements over the fundamental principles criticism over the inefficiency of policies aiming to ensure equal opportunities and objections to their unfairness all pose questions that current conceptions answer in different ways This Handbook examines a wide variety of questions about issues of motivation procedures genealogy taxonomy and compensation

European Union Non-Discrimination Law and Intersectionality Anna Lawson, 2016-07-22 This book contributes to a critical reflection of current legislative and jurisprudential developments in Non Discrimination Law focusing on the European Union The book is focused on intersectionality between gender race and disability and the question of whether and to what extent this intersection can be adequately addressed in EU law The discussion rests on two basic assumptions First the multiplication of discrimination grounds in EU law and other legal regimes should not result in a dilution of the demands of equality law Accordingly the book focuses on the three key grounds race gender and disability These constitute nodes around which other discrimination grounds can be grouped Second any multi ground non discrimination law framework needs to engage with the question of discrimination on several grounds This book provides a critical evaluation of some of the problems presented by such intersectionality and an opportunity to explore the issues in depth This collection offers some new proposals relating to the regrouping of identity categories and to the general approach to socio legal research in the field It also contains a comparative section which expands on practical experiences with intersectionality and law and a section dedicated to juridical responses to intersectionality The book will be a valuable resource for researchers academics and those working in the area of EU non discrimination law and policy
