The SAGE Handbook of Critical Pedagogies Shirley R. Steinberg, Barry Down, 2020-03-06 Winner of a 2022 American Educational Studies Association Critics Choice Book Award This extensive Handbook brings together different aspects of critical pedagogy in order to open up a clear international conversation on the subject as well as pushing the boundaries of current understanding by extending the notion of a pedagogy to multiple pedagogies and perspectives Bringing together contributing authors from around the globe chapters provide a unique approach and insight to the discipline by crossing a range of disciplines and articulating common philosophical and social themes Chapters are organised across three volumes and twelve core thematic sections Part 1 Social Theories of Critical Pedagogy Part 2 Seminal Figures in Critical Pedagogy Part 3 Transnational Perspectives and Critical Pedagogy Part 4 Indigenous Perspectives and Critical Pedagogy Part 5 On Education Part 6 In Classrooms Part 7 Critical Community Praxis Part 8 Reading Critical Pedagogy Reading Paulo Freire Part 9 Communication Media and Popular Culture Part 10 Arts and Aesthetics Part 11 Critical Youth Pedagogies Part 12 Technoscience Ecology and Wellness The SAGE Handbook of Critical Pedagogies is an essential benchmark publication for advanced students researchers and practitioners across a wide range of disciplines including education health sociology anthropology and development studies Principles of Transversality in Globalization and Education David R. Cole, Joff P.N. Bradley, 2018-07-07 This unique book comprehensively covers the evolving field of transversality globalization and education and presents creative research based thought experiments that seek to unravel the forces of globalization impacting education Pursuing various approaches to and uses of transversality with a focus on the ideas of Félix Guattari it is the only book of its kind Specifically it examines the influence of Guattari at the forefront of educational research that addresses enhances and sets free activist micro perspectives which can counter macro global movements such as capitalism and climate change This book is a global education research text that includes perspectives from four continents providing a balanced and significant work on globalization in education Explorations in Urban Practice Katja Aßmann, Markus Bader, Rosario Talevi, raumlaborberlin, Urbane Künste Ruhr, 2017-10-26 Both a learning platform and a pedagogical experiment Urban School Ruhr is built upon the foundational belief that experts and amateurs can together build a space of critical exchange and knowledge transfer USR prioritises exchange and dialogue that is not necessarily attached to specific outcomes results or interventions in built reality instead understanding conversation as the first step to co producing cities Explorations in Urban Practice the first edition in the Urban School Ruhr Series draws from and reflects upon USR's experiences to date whilst also looking to the future of urban practice in contemporary cities The book presents the reader with key current questions in the field how can we learn city making How should we understand the political concept of commoning for this purpose And how can we discuss intervention as a strategy for enacting urban change Art, Artists and Pedagogy Christopher Naughton, Gert Biesta, David Cole, 2017-10-16 This volume has been brought together to generate

new ideas and provoke discussion about what constitutes arts education in the twenty first century both within the institution and beyond Art Artists and Pedagogy is intended for educators who teach the arts from early childhood to tertiary level artists working in the community or those studying arts in education from undergraduate to Masters or PhD level From the outset this book is not only about arts in practice but also about what distinguishes the arts in education Exploring two different philosophies of education the book asks what the purpose of the arts is in education in the twenty first century With specific reference to the work of Gert Biesta questions are asked as to the relation of the arts to the world and what kind of society we may wish to envisage The second philosophical set of ideas comes from Deleuze and Guattari looking in more depth at how we configure art the artist and the role played by the state and global capital in deciding on what art education has become This book provides educators with new ways to engage with arts focusing specifically on art music dance drama and film studies At a time when many teachers are looking for a means to re assert the role of the arts in education this text provides many answers with reference to case studies and in depth arguments from some of the world s leading academics in the arts philosophy and education

Major Reward and Recognition Events Lukasz Swiatek,2023-08-24 Using a range of interdisciplinary ideas Major Reward and Recognition Events Transformations and Critical Perspectives is an expert led informative volume exploring the global growth of major award shows and prize giving ceremonies since the start of the twentieth century and outlining their key multimodal components core functions and transformations over time Given the growth of these events and therefore the increase in complex resources and specialist workers required to assemble and promote them this book discusses concerns relating to such events including those pertaining to social justice and representation environmental impacts wellbeing commercialisation and materialistic excess Embellished with illustrative tables and images throughout the book covers a plethora of award shows and ceremonies evaluating their collective future in an increasingly politically unstable post Covid 19 world dealing with growing global environmental change This significant book is an invaluable resource for academics and researchers of critical event studies communication and media studies as well as related social science disciplines The book will also be of interest to enthusiasts and organisers of major recognition and reward events

Society, Politics, and Education in Uncertain Times Harry Dyer,Agnieszka Bates,John Gordon,Geoffrey Hinchliffe,2025-09-04 Drawing on chapters from a selection of authors from the fields of education philosophy political science and sociology this book presents provocations on how citizenship might be experienced conceptualised expressed and practiced in a range of settings Comprised of thirteen chapters by a group of international academics the book engages with the concepts of citizenship and political agency as well as forms and expressions of citizenship to consider how the practice of citizenship can be extended to move beyond mainstream political discourses Discussions of decolonisation race disability advocacy sexual health protest and democracy examine how citizenship and belonging are enacted in a range of international contexts In order to explore these issues the book draws on a range of empirical theoretical political and speculative discussions from a range of perspectives Throughout it provides a critique of dominant conceptions of citizenship and explores how citizenship might be re conceptualised and re fashioned This volume is an essential read for academics researchers postgraduate students policy makers and teachers interested in reframing citizenship education to enhance a sense of belonging in our uncertain times Disability & the Politics of Education Susan Lynn Gabel, Scot Danforth, 2008 Disability and the Politics of Education An International Reader is a rich resource that deals comprehensively with the many aspects of the complex topic of disability studies in education For nearly two decades global attention has been given to education as a human right through global initiatives such as Education for All EFA and the Salamanca Statement Yet according to UNESCO reaching the goals of EFA remains one of the most daunting challenges facing the global community Today millions of the world s disabled children cannot obtain a basic childhood education particularly in countries with limited resources Even in the wealthiest countries many disabled children and youth are educationally segregated from the nondisabled particularly if they are labeled with significant cognitive impairment International agencies such as the United Nations and the World Bank have generated funds for educational development but unfortunately these funds are administered with the assumption that west is best thereby urging developing countries to mimic educational policies in the United States and the United Kingdom in order to prove their aid worthiness This McDonaldization of education reproduces the labeling resource allocation and social dynamics long criticized in disability studies The authors in this volume explore these subjects and other complexities of disability and the politics of education In doing so they demonstrate the importance and usefulness of international perspectives and comparative approaches New Zealand Journal of Educational Studies ,1996 Welcome to Cyberschool David Trend, 2001-07-11 Welcome to Cyberschool is a book about two highly charged and often emotional discussions in today s society One concerns the optimism and promise surrounding information technologies of computers and the internet the other involves the growing pessimism and despair about the nation s schools These narratives of technological optimism and educational pessimism converge with increasing frequency as school groups community leaders and political rivals battle each other over the best way to wire the nation s schools computerize every classroom and leave no child behind Welcome to Cyberschool is the first book length analysis of this confluence of technology and education in the information age The Publishers Weekly ,1976 Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2003-04 Leonardo ,1991 International journal of contemporary visual artists MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures Modern Language Association of America, 2008 Vols for 1969 include ACTFL annual bibliography of books and articles on pedagogy in foreign languages 1969 A Counter-history of Composition Byron Hawk, 2007 Contests the assumption that vitalism and contemporary rhetoric represent opposing disconnected poles in the writing tradition Vitalism has been historically linked to expressivism and dismissed as innate and unteachable whereas rhetoric is seen as a rational teachable method for producing argumentative texts Hawk calls for the reexamination of current pedagogies to incorporate vitalism and complexity theory and argues for their application in the environments where students write and think today Winner of the 2007 JAC W Ross Winterowd Award Honorable Mention 2007 MLA Mina P Shaughnessy Prize Going Wireless Amy C. Kimme Hea, 2009

Going Wireless is the first edited collection on wireless and mobile technologies in the field of rhetoric and composition The contributors offer rhetoric and composition teachers scholars and administrators a range of practical and theoretical insights on wireless and mobile technologies This collection serves as a resource for theoretical explorations on wireless and mobile technology use as it relates to computer and composition teaching and research and acts as a reference for those in the rhetoric and composition community charged with the responsibilities of integrating supervising and evaluating wireless and mobile technologies Going Wireless is organized into five major sections and an appendix of key mobile and wireless technology terms In each section authors represent a range of perspectives as they articulate the roles of students teachers administrators and researchers working with and through mobile and wireless devices The book provides readers with ways to understand the influence of wireless and mobile technologies by critiquing the corporate and IT perspectives that inform mobile and wireless development and integration and seeking out new tropes for learning teaching and researching Drawing on interviews and surveys rhetorical analyses and theoretical explorations of wireless and mobile devices the authors enact a range of methodologies to make claims for reflective approaches to research and teaching with wireless and mobile devices The contributors share their perspectives on the impact of these technological shifts and situate their experiences in relationship to rhetoric and composition as a field
