We Are All Armenian Aram Mrjoian, 2023-03-14 A collection of essays about Armenian identity and belonging in the diaspora In the century since the Armenian Genocide Armenian survivors and their descendants have written of a vast range of experiences using storytelling and activism two important aspects of Armenian culture Wrestling with questions of home and self diasporan Armenian writers bear the burden of repeatedly telling their history as it remains widely erased and obfuscated Telling this history requires a tangled balance of contextualizing the past and reporting on the present of respecting a culture even while feeling lost within it We Are All Armenian brings together established and emerging Armenian authors to reflect on the complications of Armenian ethnic identity today These personal essays elevate diasporic voices that have been historically silenced inside and outside of their communities including queer multiracial and multiethnic writers The eighteen contributors to this contemporary anthology explore issues of displacement assimilation inheritance and broader definitions of home Through engaging creative nonfiction many of them question what it is to be Armenian enough inside an often unacknowledged community
