Handbook of Research on Training Teachers for Bilingual Education in Primary Schools Estrada Chichón, José Luis,Zayas Martínez, Francisco,2023-02-06 Modern societies tend to demand innovative learning modalities in which foreign languages are used to teach content subjects from very early educational stages Education authorities in different geographical areas of the world are currently working to determine how bilingual teaching should be developed depending along with many other factors on the initial training of bilingual education teachers On this basis it is necessary to review how tertiary education institutions deal with the theoretical foundations and practical approaches necessary for this learning modality to train bilingual education teachers for primary schools The Handbook of Research on Training Teachers for Bilingual Education in Primary Schools includes international experiences of teacher training for bilingual education in primary schools in which educators should be able to recognize themselves and identify concrete working formulas to apply in their daily work Covering key topics such as teacher training language learning and primary education this reference work is ideal for administrators teacher trainers policymakers researchers scholars practitioners academicians instructors and students

Guiding Teachers into Bilingual Education Valérie Fialais,Reseda Streb,2025-08-30T00:00:00Z This publication aims to build a guideline for both teachers and administrators with monolingual class experience who whether out of interest or necessity wish to create the proper setting for bilingual teaching In addition this guide uses a twofold strategy combining academic research theory and on site bilingual school practice The bridge between the two fields is considered to be the keystone to this book It strengthens the argumentation for both the theoretical concepts employed and professional experience

Critical Perspectives on Linguistic Fixity and Fluidity

Jürgen Jaspers, Lian Malai Madsen, 2019-01-15 This volume offers a critical perspective on current views on linguistic fixity and fluidity in sociolinguistics and highlights empirical accounts alternative to prevailing trends in the field Featuring accounts from a broad range of regional contexts the collection takes stock of such terms as polylingualism metrolingualism and translanguaging to question perceptions around multilingual and monolingual language use The book critiques the status of fluid language use as a more natural language practice and in turn its greater potential for corresponding social transformation demonstrating the value of linguistic fixity and the continuous debate between fixity and fluidity in multilingual speakers lives In providing these accounts the book seeks not to advocate for linguistic fixity or fluidity but to argue that sociolinguists pay close attention to the way both types of linguistic practice open up or close down avenues for social transformation This collection is a key reading for graduate students and scholars in sociolinguistics multilingualism and linguistic anthropology

Mobile Assisted Language Learning Glenn Stockwell, 2022-01-06 A contemporary overview of recent theory research and practice of MALL which is immediately applicable to language teaching contexts

Multilingualism and Education Gail Prasad, Nathalie Auger, Emmanuelle Le Pichon Vorstman, 2022-06-09 For decades international researchers and educators have sought to understand how to address cultural and linguistic diversity in education This book offers the keys to doing so it brings together short biographies of thirty six scholars representing a wide range of universities and countries to allow them to reflect on their own personal life paths and how their individual life experiences have led to and informed their research This approach highlights how theories and concepts have evolved in different contexts while opening up pedagogical possibilities from diverse backgrounds and enriched by the life experiences of leading researchers in the field Beyond these questions the book also explores the dynamic relationships between languages power and identities as well as how these relationships raise broader societal issues that permeate both global and local language practices It is essential reading for students teacher educators and researchers interested in the impact of multilingualism on education

Learning English at School Kelleen Toohey, 2018-05-25 This fully revised edition provides a comprehensive discussion of how insights and concepts from new materialism and posthumanism might be used in investigating second language learning and teaching in classrooms Alongside the sociocultural and poststructural perspectives discussed in the first edition this new book presents insights from new materialism on identity second language learning and pedagogical practices This application of new theory deepens our understanding of how minority language background children learn English in the context of their classrooms The author comprehensively explains the new materiality perspectives and suggests how research from this perspective might provide new insights on second language learning and teaching in classrooms The book is unique in analysing empirical classroom data from a sociocultural but also a new materiality perspective and has the potential to change our understandings of research and pedagogical practices

Envisioning TESOL through a Translanguaging Lens Zhongfeng Tian, Laila Aghai, Peter Sayer, Jamie L.

Schissel, 2020-09-12 To respond to the multilingual turn in language education this volume constitutes a challenge to the traditional monolingual and native speakerism paradigm in the field of Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages TESOL through a translanguaging lens The chapters offer complex global perspectives with contributions from five continents to open critical conversations on how to conceptualize and implement translanguaging in teacher education and classrooms of various contexts The researchers exhibit a shared commitment to transforming TESOL profession that values teachers and learners full linguistic repertoires This volume should prove a valuable resource for students teachers and researchers interested in English teaching and learning applied linguistics second language acquisition and social justice

Language Learning in Study Abroad Wenhao Diao, Emma Trentman, 2021-03-04 Vestiges of monolingual bias are present in the portrayal of study abroad as an idealized monolingual immersion experience and the steps many programs take to encourage or enforce target language monolingualism In reality study abroad is often inherently multilingual This book addresses the need for a recognition of the multilingual realities of study abroad across a variety of traditional and non traditional national contexts and target languages The chapters examine multilingual socialization and translanguaging with peers local hosts and instructors how the target language is necessarily entwined in global local and historical contexts and how students negotiate the use of local and global varieties of English Together the chapters present a powerful argument for scholars and study abroad practitioners to consider and critically incorporate multilingual realities into their research and planning

Multilingualism, Identity and Interculturality in Education Ruth Fielding, 2022-10-31 This book brings together research on multilingualism identity and intercultural understanding from a range of locations across the globe to explore the intersection of these key ideas in education It addresses the need to better understand how multilingual identity and intercultural approaches intersect for multilingual learners in complex and varied settings Through global examples it explores how identities and multilingualism are situated within and surrounding intercultural experiences This book examines the different theoretical interpretations as encountered and used in different contexts By doing so it helps readers better understand how teachers approach multilingualism and diversity in a range of contexts
