Law and Global Health Michael Freeman, Sarah Hawkes, Belinda Bennett, 2014-05-29 Current Legal Issues like its sister volume Current Legal Problems now available in journal format is based upon an annual colloquium held at University College London Each year leading scholars from around the world gather to discuss the relationship between law and another discipline of thought Each colloquium examines how the external discipline is conceived in legal thought and argument how the law is pictured in that discipline and analyses points of controversy in the use and abuse of extra legal arguments within legal theory and practice Law and Global Health the sixteenth volume in the Current Legal Issues series offers an insight into the scholarship examining the relationship between global health and the law Covering a wide range of areas from all over the world articles in the volume look at areas of human rights vulnerable populations ethical issues legal responses and governance

Blockchain Politics Kieron O'Hara, 2025-06-09 Likening contemporary extremes of far right populism and identity politics to 17th century Peasants and Puritans Blockchain Politics examines the enduring importance of trust in political life Kieron O Hara develops a new theory of trust to analyse how these extremes undermine social accord and weaken representative democracy and to suggest remedies

Thinking with Women Philosophers Eléonore Le Jallé, Audrey Benoit, 2022-10-03 This book focuses on some English speaking women philosophers who have been major actors since the 20th century in the field of practical philosophy namely political and social philosophy feminist approaches to philosophy moral psychology the theory of action and ethics

The book explores topics linked to the main aspects of the thought of those philosophers i e Elizabeth Anscombe Judith Butler Philippa Foot Nancy Fraser Carol Gilligan and Martha Nussbaum Six women French commentators have written a chapter on each of those women anglo american philosophers creating a dialogue as they think with them elaborating their own positions in their respective fields

On Feminist Ethics and Politics Claudia Card,1999 For years mainstream feminist ethics focused criticism on male supremacy Feminist philosophers in this volume adopt a less male focused stance to look closely at oppression s impact on women s agency and on women s relations with women Examining legal social and physical relationships these philosophers confront moral ambiguity moral compromise and complicity in perpetuating oppression Combining personal experience with philosophical inquiry they vividly portray their daily engagement with oppression as both victims and perpetrators They explore such issues as how pornography silences women and radical feminist politics complicity in racism Among these insightful essays Sandra Bartky argues that women share guilt for racism when they benefit from it without protest Susan Brison reflects on uses of narrative in trauma recovery from such experiences as being targeted for rape or murder Joan Callahan examines fallout of derogatory speech directed at lesbians Virginia Held proposes carrying care into marketplaces and governments and in her introduction Claudia Card draws on Primo Levi s conception of gray zones in exploring dangers of character damage to victims of misogyny A fitting companion to Card s highly regarded Feminist Ethics this volume interweaves observations on character political ethics violence and love into an accessible sourcebook for students It tackles some of feminism s most pressing issues and helps readers to identify and then overcome the real damage caused by oppression

Virtual Morality Mark J. P. Wolf,2003 Table of contents

Deeper Learning with Psychedelics David J. Blacker,2024-06-01 In both clinical and informal settings psychedelics users often report they have undergone something profound and even life altering Yet there persists a confounding inability to articulate just what has been imparted Informed by multidisciplinary emerging research this book provides an account of the specifically educational aspects of psychedelics and how they can render us ready to learn Drawing from indigenous peoples worldwide who typically revere these substances as plant teachers and from canonical thinkers in the western tradition such as Plato Spinoza Kant and Heidegger the author proposes an original set of categories through which to understand the educational capabilities of entheogens psychedelics with visionary qualities It emerges that entheogens real power lies not in destabilizing and decentering turning on and dropping out but as powerful aids in restoring and reenchancing our shared worlds
