More Than Words Illustrated Letters From The Smithsonian's Archives Of American Art:

More Than Words Liza Kirwin, 2005-10-27 Words speak volumes but as every letter writer knows there are times when they simply won't do. When the author happens to be a visual artist he has an added advantage one that transforms ordinary stationery into a canvas. This book chronicles those occasions when words were not enough and some of America's most revered artists turned their talents to illustrating their most intimate thoughts and feelings. Writing to wives, lovers, friends, patrons, clients, and confidants, premiere artists such as Frederick Edwin Church, Thomas Eakins, Winslow Homer, Andrew Wyeth, Rockwell Kent, Lyonel Feininger, John Sloan, Alfred Frueh, Man Ray, Alexander Calder, Dorothea Tanning, Gio Ponti, Andy Warhol, and Frida Kahlo picture the world around them in charming vignettes, caricatures, portraits, and landscapes. Together, the words and images of these autobiographical works of art created for private consumption reveal the joys and successes, loves and longings, triumphs and frustrations of their distinguished authors' personal lives and professional careers. From the weekly shopping list to the Ten Commandments, our lives are shaped by lists. Whether dashed off as a quick reminder or carefully constructed as an inventory, this humble form of documentation provides insight into its maker's personal habits and decision-making processes. This is especially true for artists whose day-to-day acts of living and art-making overlap and inform each other. Artists' lists shed and uncover a host of unknown motivations, attitudes, and opinions about their work and the work of others. Lists presents almost seventy artifacts including to-do lists, membership lists, lists of paintings sold, lists of books to read, lists of appointments made and met, lists of supplies to get, lists of places to see, and lists of people who are in. At times introspective, humorous, and resolute, but always revealing and engaging, Lists is a unique firsthand account of American cultural history that augments the personal biographies of some of the most celebrated and revered artists of the last two centuries. Many of the lists are historically
