Digital Humanities and Libraries and Archives in Religious Studies Clifford B. Anderson, 2022-02-07 How are digital humanists drawing on libraries and archives to advance research and learning in the field of religious studies and theology How can librarians and archivists make their collections accessible to digital humanists The goal of this volume is to provide an overview of how religious and theological libraries and archives are supporting the nascent field of digital humanities in religious studies The volume showcases the perspectives of faculty librarians archivists and allied cultural heritage professionals who are drawing on primary and secondary sources in innovative ways to create digital humanities projects in theology and religious studies Topics include curating collections as data conducting stylometric analyses of religious texts and teaching digital humanities at theological libraries The shift to digital humanities promises closer collaborations between scholars archivists and librarians The chapters in this volume constitute essential reading for those interested in the future of theological librarianship and of digital scholarship in the fields of religious studies and theology

Empowering Small Businesses United States. Congress. House. Committee on Small Business, 2017 Redesigning Schools to Be Antiracist Stephen Sharp, 2024-12-19 Make schools the gateway to knowledge equality and freedom for all The statistics are real Black students are more likely to be suspended more likely to attempt suicide and less likely to attend college than their white peers What can we do to change these realities Do you want to just talk about race or do you want to make real change in the lives of children and what they experience every day Antiracism is the design and implementation of practices to address mitigate and dismantle racism In Redesigning Schools to Be Antiracist author and professional school counselor Stephen Sharp shares a new framework for implementing effective and sustainable systems change to counter racism and redesign education You ll discover Why so many systems remain unchanged despite intensive self discovery and learning What the Oppression Cycle is and how to disrupt it Lessons learned from history and how to design a better future by remembering and not repeating the past Redesigning Schools to Be Antiracist provides school counselors leaders and education professionals a way to conceptualize racism and race as systemic in nature understand systems dynamics and the related tools and apply these tools to make education better for every student you serve I Cannot Control Everything Forever Emily C. Bloom, 2024-04-16 One of TIME magazine s 100 Must Read Books of 2024 A New Yorker Best Book of the Year An eloquent and intimate debut memoir about navigating the gap between expectation and reality in modern motherhood I Cannot Control Everything Forever is Emily Bloom s journey towards and through motherhood a path that has become for the average woman laden with data and medical technology Emily faces decisions regarding genetic testing and diagnosis technologies that offer the illusion of certainty but carry the weight of hard decisions Her desire to know more thrusts her back into the history of science as she traces the discoveries that impacted the modern state of pregnancy and motherhood With the birth of their daughter who is diagnosed with congenital deafness and later Type 1 diabetes Emily and her husband find their life centered around medical data devices and doctor s visits but also made richer and fuller by parenting an exceptional child As Emily learns technology and data do not reduce the labor of caretaking These things often fall as the pandemic starkly revealed on mothers Trying to find a way out of the loneliness and individualism of 21st century parenthood Emily finds joy in reaching outwards towards art and literature such as the maternal messiness of Louise Bourgeois or Greek myths about the power of fate as well as the collective sustenance of friends and community With lyrical and enchanting prose I Cannot Control Everything Forever is an inspired meditation on art science and motherhood

When Texas Prison Scams Religion Michael G. Maness, 2023-05-22 When Texas Prison Scams Religion exposes corruption in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice especially in the abuse of religion In many ways this book is a literature review of 1 800 plus works that defends freedom of conscience in prison while exposing the unconstitutionality of the seminary program that buys faith with favor from prisoners The state veritably ordains the prisoner a Field Minister that represents the offices of the Governor TDCJ Director and wardens throughout the prison Therein TDCJ lies about neutrality in a program all about Christian missions and lies again in falsely certifying elementary Bible students as counselors Why is the director sponsoring psychopaths counseling psychopaths In fact TDCJ pays 314 million a year to UTMB for psychiatric care and receives not a single report of the care given and worse for UTMB generates no reports itself The underbelly TDCJ's executive culture of cover up is exposed TDCJ has hired the lowest qualified of the applicant pool many times in the last 25 years and regularly destroys statistics on violence TDCJ Dir Collier led the prison to model Louisiana Warden Burl Cain the most scandal ridden in penal history according to a host of published news stories for 20 years Therein Collier led TDCJ to favor the smallest segment of religious society within Evangelical Dominionism Texas has no business endorsing the truth of any religion over another We close with a proposal that utilizes the 400 000 000 hours of officer contact over ten years as a definitive influence in contrast to a commissioner that spends less than 10 minutes on each decision Maness has been lobbying Austin for 15 years to definitively access staff for his 100 000 Mothers 1% Certainty Parole Texas Constitutional Amendment which would revolutionize prison culture and save Texans millions of the dollars
