Mourning Diana Nation Culture And The Performance Of Grief:

Mourning Diana Adrian Kear, Deborah Lynn Steinberg, 1999 Examining the events which followed the death of Princess Diana as a series of cultural political phenomena this text explores the performance of grief and the involvement of the global media Mourning Diana, Death and Religion in a Changing World Kathleen Garces-Foley, 2006 Looking at how religious people approach death in the twenty first century this is a comprehensive study of the intersection of death and religion It describes how people from a variety of faiths draw on and adapt traditional beliefs and practices as they deal with death in modern societies Sentimental State(s) Heike Paul, Sarah Pritz, 2025-08-12 The word state has a double meaning signifying both a condition and a political entity Starting from this observation the contributors to this volume provide a cross cultural and cross media discussion of the role of the sentimental in political culture In their case studies from all over the world they focus on affective politics of order and belonging in processes and constellations of community building They analyze sentimental encodings used in symbolic interactions ranging from foundational narratives and state orchestrated public rituals to visualizations of citizenship and protest movements Imperial Emotions Jane Lydon, 2020 Examines the politicisation of empathy across the British empire during the nineteenth century and traces its legacies into the present

Reading Hilary Mantel Lucy Arnold, 2019-12-12 From the ghosts which reside in Midlands council houses in Every Day is Mother's Day to the resurrected historical dead of the Booker Prize winning Wolf Hall and Bring up the Bodies the writings of Hilary Mantel are often haunted by supernatural figures One of the first book length studies of the writer's work Reading Hilary Mantel explores the importance of ghosts in the full range of her fiction and non fiction writing and their political social and ethical resonances Combining material from original interviews with the author herself with psychoanalytic historicist and deconstructivist critical perspectives Reading Hilary Mantel is a landmark study of this important and popular contemporary novelist Representing Royalty Julia Kinzler, 2018-07-27 Since the early days of cinema filmmakers have been intrigued by the lives and loves of British monarchs The most recent productions by ITV and Netflix show that the fascination with British royalty continues unabated both in Britain and around the world This book examines strategies of representing power and the staging of myths of power in seven popular films about British monarchs that were made after the mid 1990s revival of the royal biopic genre By combining approaches from cultural studies with concepts and theories from the humanities such as film studies and art history it offers a comprehensive understanding of the cinematic portraits of royalty In addition the volume opens up new perspectives on how meaning is generated in films about the monarchy and on the connections between the biographical narratives The introductory chapter to the case studies reviews the different academic positions on representations of royalty provides a toolkit for studying the subject and demonstrates ways to approach the films The book addresses questions of historical context and goes beyond a mere exploration of historical accuracy to reveal the films underlying ideological aims As such it makes a distinctive new contribution to the growing body of interdisciplinary work on the British monarchy in general and its cinematic representations in particular It is the first monograph about representational mechanisms of royal identities and British past s in royal films such as Elizabeth The Queen and The King s Speech Mourning, Modernism, Postmodernism Tammy Clewell, 2009-10-22 Mourning Modernism Postmodernism illuminates the emergence of a fundamentally new way of thinking and writing about loss in the twentieth century novel one that spurns consolation and the conventional aim of closure Inaugurated in the modernist novel the rejection of consolation manages to promote a politically progressive politics of mourning The modernist novel established as well the terms of a new mourning practice terms whose democratizing aims would be challenged in the late modernist period but ultimately reanimated and reworked by postmodern writers In challenging the familiar view of modernist aesthetics as removed from social concerns and of postmodernist aesthetics as a self reflexive language game incapable of representing affirmative content Mourning Modernism Postmodernism demonstrates how novelists of some of the most experimental fiction of the century engage the open ended aspects of loss to imagine new forms of identity and social change Politics, Transgression, and Representation at the Court of Charles II Julia Marciari Alexander, Catharine MacLeod, 2007 This volume brings together ten distinguished scholars of history literature music theatre and art to explore the political and cultural implications of the court s transgressive new character Journalism in a Culture of Grief Carolyn L. Kitch, Janice Hume, 2008 This book considers the cultural meanings of death in American journalism and the role of journalism in interpretations and enactments of public grief which has returned to an almost Victorian level A number of researchers have begun to address this growing collective preoccupation with death in modern life few scholars however have studied the central forum for the conveyance and construction of public grief today news media News reports about death have a powerful impact and cultural authority because they bring emotional immediacy to matters of fact telling stories of real people who die in real circumstances and real people who mourn them Moreover through news media a broader audience mourns along with the central characters in those stories and in turn news media cover the extended rituals Journalism in a Culture of Grief examines this process through a range of types of death and types of news media It discusses the reporting of horrific events such as September 11 and Hurricane Katrina it considers the cultural role of obituaries and the instructive work of coverage of teens killed due to their own risky behaviors and it assesses the role of news media in conducting national patriotic memorial rituals Mourning and Disaster Michael Brennan, 2008 The Hillsborough stadium disaster of 15 April 1989 and the death of Princess Diana on 31 August 1997 sparked expressivist scenes of public mourning hitherto unseen within the context of British society The largely local displays of grief witnessed on Merseyside following the Hillsborough disaster were however repeated and provided a pre text for the national and global public mourning which accompanied the death of Princess Diana What was it this book asks about the Hillsborough disaster and death of Princess Diana that provoked such strong emotions Why and how did these ostensibly similar events produce such contrasting reactions moving some people including the book TM s author to mourn one event but resist the mourning for the other Mourning and Disaster provides an insight into a series of questions raised by the public mourning that followed these two events What for example do the messages contained in the public books of condolence signed in the wake of these events tell us either about the social identities of the people who mourned or about the processes of meaning making by which death is apprehended and understood What do condolence books tell us about how contemporary society mourns and the ways in which loss is languaged Is it the case that in episodes of public mourning in which the deceased are not known to us personally the mourner might actually be mourning some aspect of themselves Is it also the case that in not mourning these events some aspect of one TM s own identity or self was being repudiated or mourned Drawing upon both the public books of condolence signed in Britain during the public mourning for these events alongside the author TM s own autobiographical memories of them it is to these sorts of questions amongst others that this book seeks to provide answers

Blairism and the War of Persuasion Deborah Lynn Steinberg, Richard Johnson, 2004 Tony Blair s use of the state to impose and manage the United Kingdom s global and individual identities which not only defines New Labour but is doctrine in its own right is analyzed in this look at the Contemporary Labour Party Compared to Margaret Thatcher s market led policies driven by social authoritarianism Blairism is a political construct that persuades with hopes of social progressivism while maintaining the necessary disciplines of global capital Showing how Blairism invites trust and advocates dialogue but hollows out party democracy to pursue pre set objectives this critique clarifies Blair s agenda in order to contest its forms of passive revolution with active construction of alternatives

Reality Television, Affect and Intimacy Misha Kavka, 2008-10-31 Reality Television Affect and Intimacy shifts current discussions of media and reality from the informative to the affective from knowledge to feelings In reality television Misha Kavka argues everyday reality is the ground for an experience of immediacy or televisual intimacy that is self evidently mediated and performed The book explores this paradox by conceptualising the relation between affect and media For Kavka affect matters because the feelings generated across the screen are real in a material way Investigating such concepts as publicity and privacy in reality TV families performance technologies in Big Brother arranged marriages in romance reality TV and gender race and sexuality in Survivor and Project Runway she argues that affect is the core reality of a public sphere that is reconfigured by its viewing patterns Renewing attention to the complexities of affective intimacies this book offers the rich realities of feeling as a critical alternative to traditional communication models Theatre Survey ,2004 The American journal of theatre history
