Movement And Belonging Movement And Belonging:

Movement and Belonging Carol E. Leon, 2009 The uncertainties and newness that surround us today prompt radical questions about ourselves and our relationship with the external world How do and can we belong to the places and spaces of today Movement and Belonging Lines Places and Spaces of Travel describes current realities and suggests ways in which you can define yourself in an ever changing world Using the travel writings of V S Naipaul Michael Ondaatje Patrick White and D H Lawrence Movement and Belonging demonstrates that authentic travel embracing changing boundaries and cultures enables you to create sites of belonging where you can find your sense of self A Literary Anthropology of Migration and Belonging Cicilie Fagerlid, Michelle A. Tisdell, 2020-01-30 This collection pushes migration and the minor to the fore of literary anthropology What happens when authors who thematize their minority background articulate notions of belonging self and society in literature The contributors use interface ethnography and fieldwork on foot to analyze a broad selection of literature and processes of dialogic engagement The chapters discuss German speaking Herta and Paul Amirian's perpetual minority status in Romania Bengali Scottish Bashabi Fraser and the potentiality of poetry vagrant pastoralism and heritagization in Puglia Italy the self representation of European Muslims post 9 11 in Zeshan Shakar's acclaimed Norwegian novel the autobiographical narratives of Loveleen Rihel Brenna and the artist collective Queendom in Norway the immigrant as a permanent guest in Spanish language children's literature and Slovenian roots searching in Argentina This anthology examines the generative and transformative potentials of storytelling while illustrating that literary anthropology is well equipped to examine the multiple contexts that literature engages Chapter 4 of this book is available open access under a CC BY 4.0 license at link.springer.com Belonging and Estrangement in the Poetry of Philip Larkin, R.S. Thomas and Charles Causley

Rory Waterman, 2016-04-22 Focusing on the significance of place connection and relationship in three poets who are seldom considered in conjunction Rory Waterman argues that Philip Larkin R S Thomas and Charles Causley epitomize many of the emotional and societal shifts and mores of their age Waterman looks at the foundations underpinning their poetry the attempts of all three to forge a sense of belonging with or separateness from their readers the poets varying responses to their geographical and cultural origins the belonging and estrangement that inheres in relationships including marriage the forced estrangements of war the antagonism between social belonging and a need for isolation and finally the charged issues of faith and mortality in an increasingly secularized country Longing in Belonging

Suzan Ilcan, 2002-04-30 The mobilization of people populations and places and the social interrelations of space and time memory and longing and the global and local are uniquely analyzed in this fascinating study Instead of viewing social and cultural relations through the lenses of rigid institutions fixed territories or rooted communities Ilcan focuses on mobile sites to explore the cultural politics of settlement This book examines the social relations of longing and belonging to be found in nation building ethnographic practices dwelling and diasporas Ilcan propels us into various dimensions of movement as well as social relations in the fields of dispersion transition and displacement Drawing on insights from cultural studies sociology and anthropology she inquires into contemporary and critical issues on the movement of peoples Transitional communities represent the tensions and risks confronting those compelled to leave home or those for whom a sense of longing superseded any feeling of belonging This book provides fresh insight into the placement and displacement of particular social groups including guest workers migrants and immigrants Ilcan covers the varieties of diasporic relations and the settlements they form as well as the manifold ways in which they affect traditional practices of settlement She considers the cultural economic and political implications of globalization evoking the struggle in our places of habitation and the strategies deployed to subvert our habits of settlement

Belonging without Othering John A.

Powell,Stephen Menendian,2024-04-23 The root of all inequality is the process of othering and its solution is the practice of belonging We all yearn for connection and community but we live in a time when calls for further division along the well wrought lines of religion race ethnicity caste and sexuality are pervasive This ubiquitous yet elusive problem feeds on fears created inherited of the other While the much touted diversity equity and inclusion initiatives are undeniably failing and activists narrowly focus on specific and sometimes conflicting communities Belonging without Othering prescribes a new approach that encourages us to turn toward one another in unprecedented and radical ways The pressures that separate us have a common root our tendency to cast people and groups in irreconcilable terms or the process of othering This book gives vital language to this universal problem unveiling its machinery at work across time and around the world To subvert it John A. Powell and Stephen Menéndez make a powerful and sweeping case for adopting a paradigm of belonging that does not require the creation of an other This new paradigm hinges on transitioning from narrow to expansive identities even if that means challenging seemingly benevolent forms of community building based on othering As the threat of authoritarianism grows across the globe this book makes the case that belonging without othering is the necessary but not the inevitable next step in our long journey toward creating truly equitable and thriving societies The authors argue that we must build institutions cultivate practices and orient ourselves toward a shared future not only to heal ourselves but perhaps to save our planet as well Brimming with clear guidance sparkling insights and specific examples and practices Belonging without Othering is a future oriented exploration that ushers us in a more hopeful direction

Dance and Belonging Crystal U. Davis, 2022-12-19 This book details how bias affects the brain perception and decision making and identifies how these factors affect the field of dance It applies social psychology to the events communities and teaching strategies in dance classrooms of all sizes and age ranges Using critical theory as a framework chapters define implicit biases and explore the power dynamics on and off the dance floor Various examples of bias in dance education are examined in detail as are the ramifications of prejudice and inequity The book sets out the mechanisms that both exacerbate and disrupt the effects of biases ultimately exploring practiced solutions for addressing bias in the dance classroom It is intended to inspire dance students teachers administrators and arts stakeholders to begin new conversations that will allow dance classrooms to become more welcoming inclusive spaces

Moments & Movements Betina Hsieh, Roland Sintos Coloma, 2025-04-21 Moments P 12 teachers and leaders and community educators and activists Using the framing of Critical Asian American Studies the chapters in this volume emphasize criticality as central to the work of educators committed to more just futures The plus symbol in Asian American highlights the volume's efforts at diverse inclusion and openness to various groups under a broad umbrella geographic category including voices of various Pasifika Arab and Middle Eastern communities without erasing their distinct histories cultures politics and experiences or erasing the tensions within and across the broader category of Asian American studies The book is organized thematically into four sections that reflect key moments in an ongoing movement This organization acknowledges that readers may be at different points in their journeys towards developing more critical perspectives or knowledge of Asian American Arab Middle Eastern American and Pasifika peoples experiences in education The first section The Moment We Begin focuses on foundational beginnings telling stories of how the authors made important first steps in creating the change they wished to see in their educational spheres The second section Building an Inclusive Movement examines how educators sustain and deepen their work within and outside of classrooms The third section Extending the Movement then looks at Critical Asian American Studies outside of classrooms and schools by attending to educational leadership families and teacher identities policy arenas and educational cultural and community activism Finally in the fourth section Envisioning New Worlds chapters attend to what justice focused future oriented movements might look like for Critical Asian American Studies All too often critical community grounded work can feel daunting This collection pushes beyond prescribed borders that separate our communities and separate us into our own educational spheres e g P 12 higher education teacher education and roles professor teacher principal student As one of the few edited collections with such diverse perspectives this collection provides multiple paths forward in Asian American Arab Middle Eastern American and Pasifika Studies inspires with its counterstories of struggle and success and challenges readers to consider their own next steps Perfect for courses such as Asian Americans in Education Critical Studies in Education Multicultural Education Sociocultural Foundations in Education Ethnic Studies Asian American Studies Social Justice in Education Critical Pedagogy and Education Urban Education Race Ethnicity and Education Introduction to Education School and Society

Performativity & Belonging Vikki Bell, 1999-10-25 This book explores belonging as a performative achievement The contributors investigate how identities are embodied and effected and how lines of allegiance and fracture are produced and reproduced Questions of difference are tackled from a perspective that attends to the complexities of history and politics Drawing on sociology philosophy and anthropology this collection brings together leading commentators including Judith Butler Paul Gilroy and Arjun Appadurai as well as a range of new scholars It examines questions of visibility political affiliation ethics mimesis spatiality passing and diversity in modes of embodied difference The volume advances conceptual and theoretical issues through testing va

The Power of Morality in Movements Anders Sevelsted, Jonas Toubøl, 2022-11-07 This Open Access book explores the role of morality in social movements Morality has always been central to social movements whether it be in the form of the moral foundations of movement claims politics and ideologies the values motivating participation the new moral principles envisioned and practiced among movement participants or the overall struggle over society's moral values that movements engage in This is evident in movements emerging from recent interlinked crises the crisis of human rights the climate crisis and the developing crisis of democracy In analyzing these current events through a variety of theoretical methodological and empirical lenses this book brings morality to the forefront of the discussion allowing for a rethinking of its role The book is divided into five parts The first part introduces and explores the central concept of the book outlining the dominant existing approaches to morality and ethics in the extant movement and civil society literature The following three parts investigate morality in relation to topics and movements that are either prominent to contemporary politics or salient to the question of morality In these empirically informed parts the authors apply a diverse selection of methods spanning fieldwork historiography traditional and novel statistical analytical methods and big data analysis to a diverse selection of data Topics discussed include refugee solidarity movements male privilege and anti feminism movement environmental and climate justice movements and religious activism The fifth and closing part of the book focuses on the more abstract theoretical question of the relationship between morality and ethics and activist practices and points to future research agendas This book will be of general interest to students scholars and academics within the disciplines of political sociology science and anthropology and of particular interest to academics in the subfields of social movement and civil society studies

Believing Without Belonging? Vinod John,2020-11-19 This study examines an indigenous phenomenon of the Hindu devotees of Jesus Christ and their response to the gospel through an empirical case study conducted in Varanasi India It analyzes their religious beliefs and social belonging and addresses the ensuing questions from a historical theological and missiological perspective The data reveals that the respondents profess faith in Jesus Christ however most remain unbaptized and insist on their Hindu identity Hence a heuristic model for a contextualized baptism as Guru diksha is proposed The emergent church among Hindu devotees should be considered from the perspective of world Christianity as a disparate form of belonging while remaining within one's community of birth The insistence on a visible church and a distinct community of Christ's followers is contested because the devotees should construct their contextual ecclesiology since it is an indigenous discovery of the Christian faith Thus the Christian label for the adherents is dispensable while retaining their socio ethnic Hindu identity Christian mission should discontinue extraction and assimilation instead missional praxis should be within the given sociocultural structures recognizing their idiosyncrasies as legitimate in God's eyes and in need of transformation like any human culture

Landscapes of Relations and Belonging Astrid Anderson,2011-04-01 Wogeo Island is well known to anthropologists of Papua New Guinea through the work of Ian Hogbin Based on substantial fieldwork the author builds on and expands previous research by showing how Wogeos establish and maintain social relationships and identities connected to place and movement in the physical landscape This innovative study demonstrates how Wogeo worldviews and social organization can be described in relation to terms of movements flows and placements in the landscape while in turn the landscape is constituted and made meaningful through people's activities and buildings The author not only addresses some of the key issues in contemporary anthropology concerning place gender kinship knowledge and power but also fills an important gap in Melanesian ethnography

Textures of Belonging Andreea Răclăuș,2021-07-16 The longstanding European conception that Roma and non Roma are separated by unambiguous socio cultural distinctions has led to the construction of Roma as non belonging others Challenging this conception Textures of Belonging explores how Roma negotiate and feel belonging at the everyday level Inspired by material culture sensorial anthropology and human geography approaches this book uses ethnographic research to examine the role of domestic material forms and their sensorial qualities in nurturing connections with people and places that transcend socio political boundaries
