Hollywood or History? Sarah J. Kaka, 2022-01-01 The rationale for the present text Hollywood or History An Inquiry Based Strategy for Using Film to Teach About Inequality and Inequity Throughout History stems from two main things First and foremost is the fact that the reviews of the first two volumes in the Hollywood or History series have been overwhelmingly positive especially as it pertains to the application of the strategy for practitioners Classroom utility and teacher practice have continued to be the primary objectives in developing the Hollywood or History strategy The second thing is that this most recent volume in the series takes it in a new direction rather than focusing on eras in history it focuses on the themes of inequity and inequality throughout history and how teachers can utilize the Hollywood or History strategy to tackle some of the more complicated content throughout history that many teachers tend to shy away from There is a firm belief that students connection to film along with teachers ability to use film in an effective manner will help alleviate some of the challenges of teaching challenging topics such as inequity and inequality in terms of gender race socioeconomic status and so much more The book provides 30 secondary lesson plans grades 6 12 that address nine different topics centered around inequity and inequality throughout history many of which connect students to the world we are living in today The intended audience for the book are teachers who teach social studies at the 6th 12th grade level both in the United States and other countries An additional audience will be college and university social studies history methods professors in the United States and worldwide Engage Striving Students in the Common Core Classroom Jane Feber, 2014-06-01 Make reading intervention engaging and effective for striving adolescent students Thirty five activities focus on phonemic awareness phonics fluency vocabulary and comprehension and are aligned with the College and Career Readiness Anchor Standards from the Common Core State Standards addressing literature and informational text foundational reading skills vocabulary and speaking and listening Step by step directions materials lists Common Core standards variations for differentiated instruction and reproducibles are included for each activity and alternative assessment ideas a reading interest survey student reading suggestions by genre and a cross reference guide to the standards and activities complete this well rounded resource By design these books are not printable from a reading device To request a PDF of the reproducible pages please contact customer service at 1 888 262 6135 Writing Workshop Teacher Created Resources, 2004-06-28 This book is perfect for busy teachers who want a comprehensive resource for teaching writing It includes lessons on the different writing genres language use and conventions and the writing process Hollywood or History? Tim Monreal, Jesús A. Tirado, 2025-06-20 Hollywood or History helps classroom teachers include more accurate Latinx stories in their classroom We believe that when used intentionally and critically media representations of Latinx communities and histories are powerful tools for high quality curriculum and instruction Hollywood or History? Lisa K. Pennington, Donna Fortune, Mary E. Tackett, Paige Horst, Meghan A. Kessler, 2024-09-01 Teaching and learning through Hollywood or commercial film and television productions is anything but a new approach and has been something of a mainstay in the classroom for nearly a century. However, purposeful and effective instruction through film is not problem free and there are many challenges that accompany classroom applications of Hollywood motion pictures. In response to the problems and possibilities associated with teaching through film, we are developing a collection of practical classroom ready lesson ideas that might bridge gaps between theory and practice and assist teachers endeavoring to make effective use of film in their classrooms. We believe that film can serve as a powerful tool in the social studies classroom and where appropriately utilized, foster critical thinking and civic mindedness. The NCSS College Career and Civic Life C3 framework represents a renewed and formalized emphasis on the perennial social studies goals of deep thinking, reading, and writing. We believe that as teachers endeavor to digest and implement the platform in schools and classrooms across the country, the desire for access to structured strategies that lead to more active and rigorous investigation in the social studies classroom will grow increasingly acute. Our hope is that this edited book might play a small role in the larger project of supporting practitioners, specifically K-6 teachers of social studies content, by offering a collection of classroom ready tools based on the Hollywood or History strategy and designed to foster inquiry through the careful use of selected motion pictures and television productions.

Yoder, Aaron P.

Johnson, 2022-05-01. Traumatic events, episodes that have caused or are likely to cause trauma, color the experiences of K-12 students and the social studies curriculum they encounter in U.S. schools. At the same time that the global COVID-19 pandemic has heightened educators' awareness of collective trauma, the racial reckoning of 2020 has drawn important attention to historical and transgenerational trauma. At a time when social studies educators can simply no longer ignore difficult knowledge, instruction that acknowledges trauma in social studies classrooms is essential. Through employing relational pedagogies and foregrounding voices that are too often silenced, the lessons in Hollywood or History: An Inquiry Based Strategy for Using Film to Acknowledge Trauma in Social Studies engage students in examining the role of traumatic or traumatic events in social studies curriculum. The 20 Hollywood or History lessons are organized by themes such as political trauma and war and genocide. Each lesson presents film clips, instructional strategies, and primary and secondary sources targeted to the identified K-12 grade levels. As a collection, they provide ready-to-teach resources that are perfect for teachers who are committed to acknowledging trauma in their social studies instruction. Hollywood or History Scott L. Roberts, Charles J. Elfer, 2018-07-01. Teaching and learning through Hollywood or commercial film productions is anything but a new approach and has been something of a mainstay in the classroom for nearly a century. Purposeful and effective instruction through film, however, is not problem free and there are many challenges that accompany classroom applications.
