Moving Beyond Sectarianism Religion Conflict And Reconciliation In Northern Ireland:

Moving Beyond Sectarianism Joseph Liechty, Cecelia Clegg, 2001 A six year research project of the Irish School of Ecumenics concerned with Christianities and sectarianism in Northern Ireland and offering a detailed analysis of sectarian dynamics

The Church, The Far Right, and The Claim to Christianity Helen Paynter, Maria Power, 2024-08-30 In recent years far right organisations have invaded mosques across the UK with army issued Bibles declaring their actions a Christian crusade Others have paraded large crosses through Muslim majority areas and invaded migrant hotels harassing residents in their so called crusade Far right appeals to clean up society and restore Christian Britain can be quite attractive to some Christians However what they may fail to appreciate is that this rhetoric may be cynically employed by those whose allegiance and values are quite contrary to Christian ones Despite all this the response from official church sources in the UK has been notably subdued and resources to help churches address hate crimes or racial tensions are scarce This book aims to fill that void Bringing together insights from theologians church practitioners and leading experts this volume examines the church's response to the rise of far right thinking in UK society and explores how it can respond more effectively With a foreword by David Gushee this book offers critical and constructive perspectives for the church to confront these challenges

Theology in the Public Sphere Sebastian Kim, 2013-01-03 A substantial and definitive introduction to public theology by one of the leading experts in the field A key text for third year undergraduate modules and MA courses in Social Ethics Political Theology and Public Theology

The Real Peace Process Siobhan Garrigan, 2016-04-01 The Good Friday Agreement resulted in the cessation of paramilitary violence in Northern Ireland However prejudice and animosity between Protestants and Catholics remains The Real Peace Process draws on extensive fieldwork in Protestant and Catholic churches across Ireland to analyse how Christian worship can become caught up in sectarianism The book examines the need for a peace process that changes hearts and minds and not merely civic structures of their inhabitants Aspects of everyday worship ranging from the spatial and symbolic to the verbal musical and interpersonal are explored as the means by which sectarianism can be challenged and transformed

Celebrating the Past, Present and Future of British and Irish Practical Theology Andrew P. Rogers, Nicola Slee, 2021-05-13 Practical theology has become a well established academic discipline in Britain and Ireland over the past half century evidenced in its chairs journals books conferences and contribution to transformed practices The British and Irish Association for Practical Theology BIAPT and its journal Practical Theology has had a significant role to play in the story of the discipline This volume is a celebration of practical theology in Britain and Ireland in all its inventiveness and variety on the occasion of BIAPT's twenty fifth birthday It offers an account of its roots in its emergence from the Scottish Pastoral Association in the 1960s its trajectories established in the journal Contact Practical Theology and how human experience has been a constant companion on the journey The book considers a range of methodologies including engagement with popular culture public theology the arts and the importance of conversation It explores new shoots in the discipline that consider how sexuality ethnicity and different religious traditions may be addressed within practical theology It concludes by asking how it may be fruitful in the future by reflecting on the challenges ahead not least the ubiquity of ignorance This is a landmark text in the unfolding of British and Irish practical theology in all its glorious distinctiveness which promises to be a major contribution to international debate in the discipline The chapters in this book were first published in Practical Theology

Evangelicalism and Conflict in Northern Ireland Gladys Ganiel,2008-04-15 This book explores the role of evangelicalism in the conflict in Northern Ireland and discusses how it may contribute to a peaceful political transition Ganiel analyzes the traditional evangelicals who are associated with the Reverend Ian Paisley as well as a new breed of mediating evangelicals who have broken with the traditions of the past Comparing evangelical politics in Northern Ireland to the U S and Canada this book sheds light on future directions for Northern Irish evangelicalism The conclusion has global reverberations as it reflects on the place of strong religions such as evangelicalism and other forms of fundamentalism in contemporary world politics

Hope and Reconciliation in Northern Ireland Ronald Wells,2010 A book about those people in institutions of civil society in Ireland who work for a new a peaceful future in Northern Ireland

Track III Actions Helena Desivilya Syna,Geoffrey Corry,2023-01-30 Since the end of the Cold War in the early 90s a multi track approach to peacemaking has been developed by academics and practitioners to bring political and civil society leaders together from across the divide of contested societies to find ways out of the conflict Much of the focus up to now has been given to the strategic contribution of Track II conflict analysis and problem solving workshops This book puts the spotlight on the role that grassroots leaders and citizens can play at Track III level in the community in building and strengthening a bottom up approach to conflict transformation following protracted conflicts In Part 1 the focus is on the post conflict situation of Northern Ireland twenty years after the Belfast Good Friday Agreement Part 2 portrays scholarly and practitioners perspectives and actions in communities and organizations designed to build partnerships in order to counteract the legacies of active protracted conflict Plots the role of Track III approaches within a multi track peacemaking pyramid in the protracted conflict and post conflict phases of conflict transformation Provides case studies on how to engage community leaders in thinking together how to work with deep seated legacies of protracted conflicts Explores the contribution of bottom up models to build intergroup partnerships within and between local communities Focuses on the interface between research and practice

Global Change, Civil Society and the Northern Ireland Peace Process Christopher Farrington,2008-01-23 Northern Ireland s Belfast Agreement has faced continual crises of implementation over a variety of security related issues Too frequently analyses have neglected to study the wider changes that have occurred inside and outside Northern Ireland These have had profound effects in changing attitudes towards violence paramilitaries the position of women and ideas of nationalism and sovereignty This book places the implementation of the Belfast Agreement in a wider context to provide an analysis of why implementation has been so difficult
