Multilingual Identities In A Global City London Stories Language And Globalization:

Multilingual Identities in a Global City D. Block, 2005-11-22 Opening with a discussion of the key issues of globalization migration multiculturalism multilingualism and global cities David Block then turns to four detailed case studies East Asian students living and working in London foreign language teachers from France London's growing Latino community and second generation South Asian university students Via these case studies the book explores the ambivalent and multi layered identities of individuals who have crossed geographical and psychological borders during the course of their lifetimes and settled in London the quintessential global city The Multiple Realities of Multilingualism Elka Todeva, Jasone Cenoz, 2009 Review text As such the book is an informative inspiring read and will be of great interest to a diverse audience including language learners researchers teachers educators and other professionals who may encounter or use a variety of languages in their daily lives whether they are mono bi or multilingual Ron Peek in International Journal of Multilingualism 2010 Discursive Constructions of Identity in European Politics R. Mole, 2007-07-12 This volume brings together specialists from a range of disciplines to discuss the discursive construction of ethnic national and regional identities and analyse how specific identity discourses condition and constrain knowledge and action with regard to various socio political issues in Europe Digital Skill Development for Industry 4.0 P Kaliraj, G Singaravelu, T. Devi, 2024-09-30 The Fourth Industrial Revolution Industry 4.0 is changing the world and digital transformation technology tools have impacted every walk of life The nature of work and careers is changing fast and in the future the right skills will be prized over academic qualifications Students must develop various skills especially technology skills to become the workforce of the future the onus of developing these skills falls on educational institutions The development of innovation and ideation skills in students is a must for them to productively contribute to a future economy They should have the capability to translate ideas into solutions products and systems that are scalable practically feasible and adaptable To prepare students for this digital world Digital Skill Development for Industry 4.0 contains chapters on developing Professional skills cognitive learning Critical thinking skills among modern learners Motivation and student engagement Invoking interest of students Student engagement in e learning Contextual learning Experimental learning Multidisciplinary learning The book is written for the academic and administrative community of universities and colleges who intend to equip their modern learners with the skills of Industry 4.0 It is also useful as a reference for undergraduate and postgraduate courses as well as doctoral programs The book can also serve as a comprehensive reference guide for researchers in the development of tools incorporating new skills and technologies Practitioners who are interested in introducing digital skill development for Industry 4.0 and its tools to solve real world problems can also use this book Identity and Language Learning Bonny Norton, 2013-10-04 Identity and Language Learning draws on a longitudinal case study of immigrant women in Canada to develop new ideas about identity investment and imagined communities in the field of language learning and teaching Bonny Norton demonstrates that a poststructuralist conception of identity as multiple a site of struggle and subject to change across time and place is highly productive for understanding language learning Her sociological construct of investment is an important complement to psychological theories of motivation The implications for language teaching and teacher education are profound Now including a new comprehensive Introduction as well as an Afterword by Claire Kramsch this second edition addresses the following central questions Under what conditions do language learners speak listen read and write How are relations of power implicated in the negotiation of identity How can teachers address the investments and imagined identities of learners The book integrates research theory and classroom practice and is essential reading for students teachers and researchers in the fields of language learning and teaching TESOL applied linguistics and literacy This book is open access under a CC BY ND licence

The Multilingual Turn Stephen May, 2013-07-24 Drawing on the latest developments in bilingual and multilingual research The Multilingual Turn offers a critique of and alternative to still dominant monolingual theories pedagogies and practices in SLA TESOL and bilingual education Critics of the monolingual bias argue that notions such as the idealized native speaker and related concepts of interlanguage language competence and fossilization have framed these fields inextricably in relation to monolingual speaker norms In contrast these critics advocate an approach that emphasizes the multiple competencies of bi multilingual learners as the basis for successful language teaching and learning This volume takes a big step forward in re situating the issue of multilingualism more centrally in applied linguistics and in so doing making more permeable its key sub disciplinary boundaries particularly those between SLA TESOL and bilingual education It addresses this issue head on bringing together key international scholars in SLA TESOL and bilingual education to explore from cutting edge interdisciplinary perspectives what a more critical multilingual perspective might mean for theory pedagogy and practice in each of these fields

Internationalizing Teaching, Localizing Learning Paul McPherron, 2016-12-27 Based on ethnographic and policy data collected over a ten year span at a university in the People's Republic of China this book analyses the history of English Language Teaching ELT policies in Chinese higher education The book uses the university as a lens in which to investigate the creative imaginations and divergent re appropriations of teaching methods learning materials and language use in the Chinese ELT context Book chapters move beyond mere descriptions of tensions and point to the local understandings and practices of English teachers both local and foreign and students Working together these teachers and students are constantly articulating new social and political conditions and meanings outside and inside given discourses and traditions of ELT The book's main argument is that these multiple stakeholders must be given a more prominent role in shaping policy and curriculum at universities and other English language contexts around the world

Language and the City Diarmait Mac Giolla Chríost, 2007-06-29 This book shows the effects of globalization on language in social context identifying the city as the key site for the realization of these effects It challenges assumptions that hold sustainable linguistic diversity to be inherently non urban while regarding the city as an unproblematic site for understanding the social function of language

Continuum Companion to Research Methods in Applied Linguistics Brian Paltridge, Aek Phakiti, 2010-04-04 The Continuum Companion to Research Methods in Applied Linguistics is designed to be the essential one volume resource for students The book includes qualitative and quantitative methods research techniques and approaches ethical considerations sample studies a glossary of key terms resources for students As well as covering a range of methodological issues it looks at numerous areas in depth including researching gender and language language and identity pragmatics vocabulary and grammar Comprehensive and accessible this will be the essential guide to research methods for undergraduate and postgraduate students in applied linguistics and language studies

New Ethnicities and Language Use R. Harris, 2006-08-04 The children and grandchildren of South Asian migrants to the UK are living out British identities which go largely unrecognized This book emphasizes their everyday low key Britishness albeit a Britishness with new inflections It is this sensibility that marks them as Brasians

Verbal/visual Narrative Texts in Higher Education Martin Solly, Michelangelo Conoscenti, Sandra Campagna, 2008 This series promotes specialist language studies both in the fields of linguistic theory and applied linguistics by publishing volumes that focus on specific aspects of language use and provide valuable insights into language and communication research A cross disciplinary approach is favoured and most European languages are accepted

Dangerous Multilingualism J. Blommaert, S. Leppänen, P. Pahta, T. Virkkula, 2012-11-14 Focuses on the endangering effects of language ideological processes This book looks at the challenges imposed by globalization and super diversity on the nation state and its language situations and ideologies and demonstrates how many of its problems rise from the tension between late modern diversity and the pre modernist responses to it

The Sociolinguistics of Voice in Globalising China Jie Dong, 2016-07-01 This book deploys and develops the notion of voice in an investigation of China's rapidly reshuffling society The book is structured around two aspects of the voicing process in contemporary China 1 stratification of voice which addresses the stabilizing condition of voice and 2 restratification of voice that draws attention to the dynamics of the system of which the order is reshuffling and not yet apparent This structure allows us to unveil the hidden forces played out in the voice making process and to stratifying and re stratifying process of contemporary Chinese society in which some people are making themselves heard whereas others are losing voice Despite its importance and usefulness voice has been under theorized in recent decades The ambitions of this book therefore are to invest serious efforts in developing the notion and to position it in the center of the theoretical toolkits available to students and scholars within and outside sociolinguistics

Learning Languages, Being Social Susanne Mohr, Lindsay Ferrara, 2024-08-05 This book addresses increasingly diverse language learning trajectories in a modern globalized world specifically outside of formal classroom situations and with respect to second and additional language practices This includes but is not restricted to intersections of formal and informal learning computer mediated contexts as well as family contexts and language learning in multilingual contexts The book provides a current and specifically anthropological view on the second and additional language acquisition in non school settings through various studies It is unique in its focus and scope and is relevant to anthropologists and linguists who are interested in the intersection of language and culture

Social Dynamics in Second Language Accent John M. Levis, Alene Moyer, 2014-04-01 This volume offers a definitive source for understanding social influences in L2 pronunciation demonstrating the importance of empirical findings from a number of research perspectives and outlining the directions that future work can take The aim is to present a coherent argument for the significance of social factors and how they contribute to phonological acquisition

Globalization and Language in the Spanish Speaking World C. Mar-Molinero, M. Stewart, 2006-09-05 This volume considers the spread of Spanish today and particularly its role in the processes of globalization Spanish is frequently dominant in contact with other languages But how contested is its hegemony and how far does it threaten other languages How are these other minoritized languages faring in a world of few strong global languages

Theorizing and Analyzing Agency in Second Language Learning Ping Deters, Xuesong Gao, Elizabeth R. Miller, Gergana Vitanova, 2015 Through several unique perspectives and contexts this volume contributes to current understanding of agency in second language learning It includes chapters discussing theoretical analytical and pedagogical approaches and will serve as a key reference for researchers of language learning and teaching

The Routledge Handbook of Spanish in the Global City Andrew Lynch, 2019-07-11 The Routledge Handbook of Spanish in the Global City brings together contributions from an international team of scholars of language in society to offer a conceptual and empirical perspective on Spanish within the context of 15 major cosmopolitan cities from around the world With a unique focus on Spanish as an international language each chapter questions the traditional and modern notions of language place and identity in the urban context of globalization This collection of new perspectives on the sociology of Spanish provides an insightful and invaluable resource for students and researchers seeking to explore lesser known areas of sociolinguistic research

(Re-)Locating TESOL in an Age of Empire J. Edge, 2006-04-19 Are TESOL professionals now fairly seen as agents of a new English speaking empire Or if they wish to distance themselves from this role are there ways of working and living that would make this differentiation clear An international group of authors put forward their differing proposals for the development of TESOL
