Stilwell and Mountbatten in Burma Jonathan Templin Ritter, 2017-04-15 Stilwell and Mountbatten in Burma explores the relationship between American General Joseph V. Stilwell and British Admiral Lord Louis Mountbatten in the China Burma India Theater CBI and the South East Asia Command SEAC between October 1943 and October 1944 within the wider context of Anglo American relations during World War II Using original material from both British and American archives Jonathan Templin Ritter discusses the military political and diplomatic aspects of Anglo American cooperation the personalities involved and where British and American policies both converged and diverged over Southeast Asia Although much has been written about CBI Stilwell and China and Mountbatten no published comparison study has focused on the relationship between the two men during the twelve month period in which their careers overlapped This book bridges the gap in the literature between Mountbatten's earlier naval career and his later role as the last Viceroy of British India It also presents original archival material that explains why Stilwell was so anti British including his 1935 memorandum titled The British and his original margin notes to Mountbatten's farewell letter to him in 1944 Finally it presents other original archival material that refutes previous books that have accused Stilwell of needlessly sacrificing the lives of his men during the 1944 North Burma Campaign merely out of hatred for the British The Life and Times of Lord Mountbatten John
