In 1966 career Marine Lieutenant Frank McCarthy received the assignment of a lifetime when he was assigned as a platoon commander in an infantry battalion preparing for deployment to Vietnam Following several months of training his men whom he would soon come to believe were some of the finest Marines ever to wear the uniform boarded a ship in San Diego and set sail for Southeast Asia not knowing how many of them would ever see their beloved country again Following a harrowing sea voyage that nearly ended their tour before it began they finally arrived in Vietnam Though a cherry unit with no combat experience within three short months that all changed Eighty two of those first ninety nights were spent in mud filled foxholes or ambush positions covered with leeches shivering through the limitless and cold monsoon rains and incessant enemy mortar fire Days of endless patrols in an area laced with thousands of mines and booby traps as well as the ever present but often unseen enemy As difficult as those first three months were McCarthy says it was a picnic compared to what would follow Recounting his first fourteen months in Vietnam in gripping detail in this book McCarthy draws on his own memory as well as official records to provide an unflinching firsthand account of what it was like to serve and lead as a Marine during the Vietnam War
