Facing Diversity in Child Foreign Language Education Joanna Rokita-Jaśkow,Agata Wolanin,2021-04-29 This edited book uses the concept of diversity in child foreign language education as a major organizing principle Since a foreign language most typically English is taught globally to an increasing number of children the variability in the process and varied learning outcomes are inescapable phenomena This book has been constructed on the premise that heterogeneity first concerns young language learners who due to the disparity in the pace of development need appropriately tailored educational solutions and second it refers to a diversity of contexts in which learning takes place The contexts can be defined

on a macroscale e.g. different countries mesoscale e.g. different institutions and microscale e.g. specific learner groups The book consists of four thematic strands In Part One the learner internal causes of heterogeneity of young language learners are clarified Part Two presents a sample of classroom studies in which learner variables such as gender learner preferences and special needs are taken into account Part Three looks at teaching materials and how they meet learners needs Finally Part Four highlights diversity issues that teachers should be prepared to face

The Clinical Practice of Educational Therapy Maxine Ficksman, Jane Utley Adelizzi, 2013-05-13 The Clinical Practice of Educational Therapy is the first book to provide a comprehensive review of the interdisciplinary profession and practice of educational therapy as it exists today It describes the scope and practice of educational therapy from its European roots to its growing presence in the United States and provides case studies to illustrate the work of educational therapists Key Features Interdisciplinary Perspective Other books focus on either educational or therapeutic interventions but rarely discuss the blend and synergy of disciplines that are the hallmark of the profession Illustrative Cases The text draws heavily on case studies as a means of understanding the practice of educational therapy especially the relationship between therapist and client Expertise Chapter authors are either experienced educational therapists or allied professionals who have made scholarly contributions to the profession such as Dorothy Ungerleider Patricia Waters Roslyn Arnold and George McCloskey In addition to educational therapy students and practitioners this book is appropriate for those working in related fields including special education school psychology school counseling and social work in educational settings
