Forest and Stream ,1894 The Galaxy William Conant Church,1876 Film Reboots Herbert Daniel

Herbert,2020-08-18 Bringing together the latest developments in the study of serial formatting practices remakes sequels series Film Reboots is the first edited collection to specifically focus on the new millennial phenomenon of rebooting Through a set of vibrant case studies this collection investigates rebooting as a practice that seeks to remake an entire film series or franchise with ambitions that are at once respectful and revisionary Examining such notable examples as Batman Ghostbusters and Star Trek among others this collection contends with some of the most important features of contemporary film and media culture today Adventure of Heroes Sean L. Johnson,2024-03-19 There are three dimensions The Namorant the Isolated and Darkeil Hell What happened to cause strange creatures from the Namorant Dimension to cross over to the Isolated Dimension where planet Earth lies Join a very charismatic female heroine two young Xeiar wizards one ordinary human two new cross human breeds and two Vexion creatures on the start of their adventure Together they will uncover hidden secrets grow as a team and deal with countless foes from Xanpo s mysterious past The New Routledge Companion to Science Fiction Mark Bould,Andrew M. Butler,Sherryl Vint,2024-06-13 The New Routledge Companion to Science Fiction provides an overview of the study of science fiction across multiple academic fields It offers a new conceptualisation of the field today marking the significant changes that have taken place in sf studies over the past 15 years Building on the pioneering research in the first edition the collection reorganises historical coverage of the genre to emphasise new geographical areas of cultural production and the growing importance of media beyond print It also updates and expands the range of frameworks that are relevant to the study of science fiction The periodisation has been reframed to include new chapters focusing on science fiction produced outside the Anglophone context including South Asian Latin American Chinese and African diasporic science fiction The contributors use both well established critical and theoretical approaches and embrace a range of new ones including biopolitics climate crisis critical ethnic studies disability studies energy humanities game studies medical humanities new materialisms and sonic studies This book is an invaluable resource for students and established scholars seeking to understand the vast range of engagements with science fiction in scholarship today Chapter 39 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license The International Studio ,1917

Superheroes Smash the Box Office Shawn Conner,2023-09-11 In 1997 the superhero movie was all but dead The last Superman flick had been released a decade earlier to disastrous reviews and ticket sales The most recent Batman film was a franchise killing bomb And an oft promised Spider Man feature was grounded Yet a mere five years later this once derided genre would be well on its way to world domination at the box office and even critical respectability How did this happen And why two decades later does the phenomenon show no sign of abating Here for the first time is an extensively researched soup to nuts history of the superhero movie from the first bargain basement black and white serials to today's multiverse blockbusters. Chronicling eight decades of stops and starts, controversies and creators, good guys and bad guys onscreen and off, this entertaining account explains how and why our entertainment universe came to be overpowered by costumed crimefighters and their nefarious counterparts.

Watching TV Harry Castleman, Walter J. Podrazik, 2024-12-16 Castleman and Podrazik present a season by season narrative that encompasses the eras of American television from the beginning in broadcast through cable and now streaming. They deftly navigate the dizzying array of contemporary choices so that no matter where you start on the media timeline, Watching TV provides the context and background to this multi-billion dollar enterprise. Drawing on decades of research, the authors weave together personalities, popular shows, corporate strategies, historical events, and changing technologies, enhancing the main commentary with additional elements that include fall prime time schedule grids for every season, date box timelines, highlighted key text, and selected photos. Full of facts, first insights, and exploits from now back to the earliest days, Watching TV is the standard chronology of American television, and reading it is akin to channel surfing through history. The fourth edition updates the story into the 2020s and looks ahead to the next waves of change. This new edition is the first to also be available in a digital format.

Cinematic Digital Television Chris Comerford, 2022-12-20 Chris Comerford explores cinematic digital television as an artistic classification and an academic object of study and illuminates the slippage in definitions of previously understood media forms. The growth of television as an artistic, informative medium has given rise to shifts in the aesthetic style of the programmes we watch, and this book outlines these shifts along with the contemporary debates and critical theory surrounding them. Comerford looks at the forms and aesthetics of television, the production standards influencing streaming television, and the agency of audiences, and provides case studies of key TV shows illustrating these shifts, including Twin Peaks, The Return, WandaVision, Hacks, and Russian Doll. Navigating the levels of production and reception in cinematic digital television, the book uses film-inspired TV as a lightning rod for understanding our narrative screen media landscape and the classifications we use to negotiate it. As an essential reading for both scholars and students of media and television studies, this book provides a much-needed consideration of the changing landscape of television.
