Morning Routine In The Us Sign In:

Home Signs Joshua O. Reno, 2024-03-21 An intimate account of an anthropologist's relationship with his non verbal son and how it has shaped and transformed his understanding of closeness and communication Home Signs grew out of the anthropologist Joshua Reno's experience of caring for and trying to communicate with his teenage son Charlie who cannot speak To manage interactions with others Charlie uses what are known as home signs gestures developed to meet his need for expression ranging from the wiggle of a finger to a subtle sideways glance Though he is nonverbal he is far from silent in fact he is in constant communication with others In this intimate reflection on language disability and togetherness the author invites us into his and Charlie's shared world Combining portraits of family life and interviews with other caregivers Reno upends several assumptions especially the idea that people who seem not to be able to speak for themselves need others to speak on their behalf With its broad exploration of nonverbal communication in both human and nonhuman contexts Home Signs challenges us to think harder about what it means to lead a normal life and to connect with another person
