Generation Sharon Cowan, Simon Halliday, 2024-09-28 This book honors the diverse and path breaking work of Michael Adler a pioneer of socio legal scholarship in the UK The book brings together an international group of scholars established and emerging researchers from across the globe to develop key ideas generated by Adler s scholarship Building on his rich portfolio of creative work at the interface of law and social science the book explores themes that continue to resonate in contemporary debates about how best to understand the relationship between justice fairness and the modern administrative state Specifically the book re examines core issues which Adler as a key figure of the first generation of UK socio legal scholars explored including the relationship between official discretion and the rule of law the justice of internal administrative processes the importance of a bottom up perspective on justice power and accountability in the prison sector access to justice for social welfare claimants and the promise of viewing law through the lens of social science Access
