Life After 40 C. S. Bear, 2021-06-10 You know how they say your life flashes before your eyes before you die Well I hate to be the barrier of bad news it doesn't or at least it didn't for me Based on actual events along with some fiction making it semi autobiographical Life after 40 tells the story of a man who after ending a three year addiction to pain pills begins looking for the silver lining that's supposed to come with recovery Only to find himself in a life altering game with Karma A game he never wanted to play Hopefully it will make you laugh cry and everything in between because that's how an addict feels every day 1

The Cardinal Henry Morton Robinson, 2013-02-26 An absorbing magnificent novel about an ordinary Irish Catholic man who ascends the church hierarchy to become Cardinal in the early twentieth century Boston Herald A selection of the Literary Guild The Cardinal was published in more than a dozen languages and sold over two million copies Later made into an Academy Award nominated film directed by Otto Preminger and starring John Huston the book tells a story that captured the nation's attention a working class American's rise to become a cardinal of the Catholic Church The daily trials and triumphs of Stephen Fermoye from the working class suburbs of Boston drive him to become first a parish priest then secretary to a cardinal later a bishop and finally a wearer of the Red Hat An essential work of American fiction that remains even more relevant today Extraordinary controversial first rate storytelling and characterization that has enormous appeal Kirkus Reviews
